PRESIDENT'S REPORT

English & German

Dear Members & Friends of the Austrian Club Melbourne.

The month of June started exceptionally well. Our weekend with the "Silver" theme inspired many people and it was delightful to see so many of our attending members and guests wearing something silver; clothing, hats, jewellery etc. Our silvery participants and our silver musicians created a super atmosphere. Melissa and Stephen emphasized, in cheerful spirits and as "quite well-to-do personalities" the motto "silver", as well as contributing to and assisting with hall decorations for the occasion. On the Sunday we hosted a lovely birthday party. Frances Dunmore celebrated her seventieth, together with forty-five family members and guests, and everybody had a marvellous time.

A massive water leak revealed itself in the carpark on this particular Sunday. Water oozed out of the bitumen in one place, then a second spot erupted and finally a third. We turned the water off at the main when we could, and the Club remained waterless from late evening on Sunday 13th June until the problem was finally fixed on Thursday 17th June. We had to bring in a detector to find the problem area and the cause was found to be a crack in the copper water pipe.

The following evening the "Koehne Quartett" delighted friends of classical music with their excellent performance. It was disappointing that not many people attended this special function on 18th June for, as part of our Constitution, we are supposed to support and promote the Austrian culture. We tried.

Liebe Klub Mitglieder und Freunde des Österreichischen Klubs Melbourne.

Der Monat Juni hatte einen vortrefflichen Beginn. Das Wochenende mit dem Thema "Silber" inspirierte viele Leute, die sich gerne mit silberner Kleidung, Schmuck, Hüten usw am Thema beteiligten und zusammen mit den Musikern für eine prima Stimmung sorgten. Melissa und Stephen unterstrichen in bester Laune, als "recht wohlhabende Persönlichkeiten" das Motto "Silber" und halfen zuvor mit der Dekoration der Halle. Am Sonntag waren wir Gastgeber für eine schöne Geburtstagsfeier. Frau Frances Dunmore feierte zusammen mit fünfundvierzig Familienmitgliedern und Freunden ihren siebzigsten Geburtstag und jeder hatte eine fantastische Zeit.

An diesem Sonntag entdeckten wir ein massives Wasserleck im Parkplatz. Wasser sickerte an einer Stelle durch den Asphalt, kurz darauf brach das Wasser auch an einer zweiten und dritten Stelle durch. Wenn es uns möglich war, spät Abends am 13. Juni, drehten wir die Hauptwasserleitung zu. Der Klub blieb sodann ohne Wasseranschluß und wir wendeten uns an einen Detektor um die Bruchstelle zu finden. Der Grund war eine Bruchstelle im Kupferrohr der Wasserleitung. Am Donnerstag den 17. war der Schaden behoben.

Das "Koehne Quartett" erfreute am Abend des folgenden Tages, den 18. Juni, mit ihrer exzellenten Darbietung Freunde der klassischen Musik. Leider war die Zahl der Anwesenden relativ gering, was ein wenig enttäuschend war, den wir alle sollten im Zusammenhang mit unserem

We welcomed a new musical entertainer, Dimi, for the 19th and 20th June. On Sunday the 20th Lajos (Louie) Kozmits celebrated his 70th birthday with family and friends.

The Rotary Club of Rosanna celebrated their change-over of President on Wednesday 23rd June. It was to be eighty-nine persons, but we had a few less as some of the Rotarians couldn't make it. It was none-the-less a very successful evening. Our Club was the recipient of a donation of $1000 for which we are very grateful.

The Burgenland evening on 26th June could have had more guests, but those that were present enjoyed a wonderful atmosphere and the music was outstanding. Many thanks to Stephen Hatton for decorating the Hall, to give the right effect for the night.

Hearty thanks also go to Hans Friedrich, who once again dismantled our Maypole at the start of the month and who then tackled the replacment of a window frame in the Mozart Stube. The building is aging and unfortunately evidence of this keeps appearing. Many thanks Hans.

The financial year has once again drawn to a close. Stocktake has been carried out and Irmgard Klein, our treasurer, has been assisting with the completion of the final figures for June so that we can get our auditors to commence on our accounts.

Our Committee members and our small band of loyal Voluntary Helpers have been really busy lately and I am very appreciative of their efforts.

Verfassungs-Sinnspruch die Österreichische Kultur mit bestem Willen unterstützen und fördern. Wir versuchten es.

Am 19. und 20. Juni hießen wir einen neuen musikalischen Unterhaltungskünstler willkommen. Am Sonntag den 20. feierte Lajos (Louie) Kozmits seinen siebzigsten Geburtstag in Kreis seiner Familie und Freunden.

Am Mittwoch den 23. Juni wurde die Wahl eines neuen Präsidenten des Rotary Club of Rosanna gefeiert. Neunundachzig Personen wurden erwartet, doch einige Rotary Klubmitglieder konnten nicht kommen. Es war jedoch ein recht erfolgreicher Abend. Unser Klub war der Empfänger einer 1000 Dollar Stiftung, für die wir sehr dankbar sind.

Am Burgenland Abend, den 26. Juni, hätten wir gerne mehr Gäste begrüßt. Doch die Anwesenden genossen eine fantastische Atmosphäre und die Musik war ausgezeichnet. Besten Dank an Stephen Hatton für die Dekoration der Halle, die diesem Abend den richtigen Effekt verlieh.

Herzlichen Dank geht auch an Hans Friedrich, der am Anfang des Monats wiederum unseren Maibaum abmontierte und der einen Fensterrahmen in der Mozartstube ersetzte. Das Gebäude wird älter, und leider zeigt sich der Beweis dafür immer öfter. Besten Dank Hans.

Unser finanzielles Jahr ging wieder zu Ende. Die Bestandsaufnahmen wurden durchgeführt und Irmgard Klein, unsere Schatzmeisterin, ist im Begriff die Berechnung für Juni zu vollenden, damit unsere Bücherrevisoren die Buchhaltung prüfen können.

Unsere Kommitteemitglieder und unsere kleine Gruppe treuer Freiwilliger Helfer waren in letzter Zeit sehr beschäftigt und ich schätze mir ihre Bemühungen sehr.

*With friendly greetings,

New Volunteers would be very much appreciated.

HELLO!

Brrr!!! I think most of you would agree that it's been decidedly wintry and cold of late. Just the right weather to turn our thoughts to Christmas, to memories of snow and the Alps and of past-times and activities that we can partake of indoors - along with a kind of mental "taking stock" of the year just past, in preparation for the year to come.

And so it is that the theme of our Newsletter this month focuses on these wintry thoughts, feelings and activities. A curious blend that intertwines the warm fuzzy Christmas cheer and sentiments of goodwill-to-all, as we celebrate Christmas in July, with the stark unemotional reality of all things official. Facts born of the stock-take of events over the past year, such as the contemplation of the Notice of impending AGM and the price rises we need to make to keep the Club viable. But tempered with some humour, as we poke fun at the red tape, the bureaucracy and the way in which simple official documents can sometimes become hilariously funny in retrospect. Such as the explanation to the Insurance company about just how that accident came about, which happened whilst building the chook shed!...

We think of the stillness and peace that a thick blanket of snow brings, particularly in the tall Alps of Tirol. Inevitably this wintry alpine reminiscence culminates in a joyful celebration of Tirol on the Tiroler Evening. Whereby, in contrast, a lively Italian night is held perhaps in a wistful moment's wish for the warmth of Italy, for a beautiful sunny hot summer's day and in honour of those fiery hot-blooded temperaments that warm the soul...

Of course this very fusion of Italian and Austrian culture and tradition can in itself be considered a stock-take of official and historical proportions. For once upon a time Tirol was whole, not split between two countries. And so we take time to look into some of the culture and traditions of these lands as we take a "Kleine Reise" through all of Tirol: the North and east of Tirol that belongs to Austria and the south which now belongs to Italy and the Ladiner.

ZUM SCHMUNZELN

Brief an den lieben Gott

Im Dorf lebte eine alte Frau. Für die war das Leben immer nur grau. Mit ihrem Einkommen war es schlecht bestellt, mit einem Wort, sie hatte kein Geld. Sie überlegte angestrengt hin und her, woher den Geld zu kriegen wär? Ihr kam ein Gedanke "Oh sapperlot" sie schrieb einen Brief an den lieben Gott.

Lieber Herrgott,

ich bin alt und arm, das Geld ist wenig, ich bitt um Erbarm, drum schicke mir schnellstens 100 Mark, sonst müßt' ich hungern und daß wär doch arg. Eine andere Hilfe weiß ich nicht mehr, denn ohne Moneten ist's doch wirklich schwer, aber bitte beeile dich mit dem Geld, sonst ist's nicht mehr schön auf dieser Welt.

Der Brief wird frankiert, in den Kasten gesteckt, der Postbote ihn dann morgens entdeckt. Er liest die Adresse, was soll er nun machen, "an den lieben Gott" ? Daß ist ja zum Lachen. Er denkt: Spass muß sein, und steckt ihn ins Fach für's Finanzamt rein, am nächsten Tag dort angekommen, von Beamten wird in Empfang genommen. Wenn sie nun glauben, er wirft weg den Brief, nein so ist daß nicht, da liegen sie schief. Er liest die Adresse und überlegt sodann, wie man der armen Frau helfen kann. Ja glauben sie mir, es ist kein Scherz, es gibt auch beim Finanzamt jemand mit Herz. Ihm kommt nun ein Gedanke und der ist fein, daß könnte für die Frau eine Hilfe sein. Er fängt gleich an, durch die Büros zu wandern und sammelt recht fleißig von einem zum anderen. Doch leider war der Erlös etwas karg, statt "100" bekam er nur "70" Mark. Aber diese wurden dann unverwandt an die arme Frau abgesandt. Sie erfreut sich, sie kann es kaum ermessen, der Herrgott hat sie nicht vergessen. Sie schreibt schnell einen Dankesbrief, in Eile sie zum Postamt lief. In ihrem Schreiben hieß es:

Lieber Herrgott,

von Herzen dank ich für die 70 Mark, doch solltest Du mal wieder an mich denken und so gütig mir ein Paar Märklein schenken, dann möcht ich Dich nur um eines bitten, das Geld nicht übers Finanzamt zu schicken, denn die Lumpen haben mir ungelogen von den 100 Mark, 30 abgezogen...

Funny Tax Return

There was a man who made his tax returns promptly and properly only to find that he owed the IRS [Internal Revenue Service], in 1997, $3,407USD. He packaged up his payment and included this letter:

Dear IRS,

Enclosed is my 1997 tax return and payment. Please take note of the attached article from the USA Today newspaper. In the article, you will see that the Pentagon is paying $171.50 for hammers and NASA has paid $600.00 for a toilet seat.

Please find enclosed four toilet seats (value $2400) and six hammers (value $1029). This brings my total payment to $3429.00. Please note the overpayment of $22.00 and apply it to the 'Presidential Election Fund', as noted on my return. Might I suggest you then send the above mentioned fund a '1.5 inch screw' . (See attached article - HUD paid $22.00 for a 1.5 inch Phillips Head Screw.)

It has been a pleasure to pay my tax bill this year, and I look forward to paying it again next year. I have just read an article about the Pentagon and 'screwdrivers'.

Sincerely,

Disgruntled Resident of Oklahoma.

A fine is a tax for doing something wrong.
A tax is a fine for doing something right.

A couple of weeks after hearing a sermon on Psalms 51:2-4 [knowing my own hidden secrets] and Psalm 52:3-4 [lies and deceit], a man wrote the following letter to the Inland Revenue's HM Inspector of Tax: "I have been unable to sleep, knowing that I have cheated on my income tax. I understated my taxable income, and have enclosed a cheque for £150. If I still can't sleep, I will send the rest."

THE "KASERMANDL"

The strange "Kasermndl" is one of Tirol's best-known mythical figures. Numerous mountain huts "pride" themselves on being the winter home for this unlucky soul. And many a native storyteller warns us to beware when hiking in the Tirolean mountains in fall, in case we should come across this restless soul!

The story of the Kasermndl is actually a sad one. In his time, so the legend goes, the Kasermndl worked as dairyman (Kaser) at mountain huts. But our Kasermndl was a mischievous character who showed no respect for his work or the food. For instance, he is alleged to have used the butter balls for bowling! Punishment for his misbehavior was inevitable, of course, and the hopeless dairyman was condemned to roam the mountains after his death.

The Kasermndl appears after the cattle and herdsman have left for the valley and all mountain huts are clocked for the winter season to come. Typically he has to stay until spring when animals and farmers return to their pastures; in some place the penalty was more lenient and the Kasermndl is allowed to return at Martinmas. In the past this return from the mountains was often replicated by youngsters who dressed up as animals and Kasermndl and boisterously roamed the villages blackening the faces of everybody who crossed their ways.

Unfortunately this tradition has died quite contrary to the Kasermndl who still wanders around the mountains. If you feel truly sorry for the Kasermndl, and are not the queasy type, you could redeem him: all you have to do is eat the 'Mus' (a traditional type of porridge) he offers you. Which is easier said than done as the Mus is contaminated with dirt and animal feces... But should you overcome your disgust and finish off the plate, you accomplished a truly good deed: the battered soul of the Kasermndl is saved and he may finally make a quick getaway. So hiker, listen closely! Beware of the Kasermndl's approaching steps and take care on the slopes in autumn and winter.

"APERSCHNALZEN"

Although the old Tirolean tradition of "Aperschnalzen" has nothing to do with the "official" start of spring on March 23 it still signals the coming of spring. With the rhythmic cracking of the whip winter is driven out and spring welcomed.

Every year at the end of winter (young) men gather for the traditional "Aperschnalzen" or whip cracking. "Aper" means free of snow and "schnalzen" is the cracking of the whip. Notes from the 19th century describe "Aperschnalzen" as the "festive welcoming of the snow-melting spring in the foothills".

The whip consists of a short handle (often made from ash) and a three to four meter long braided and greased thong or body. The cracker (popper) can be made from waxed cotton, nylon twine and in the old days horse hair.

It's quite a feat to swing the shortly-handled, long whips overhead and then, by suddenly reversing the motion, create the pistol-sharp crack. The crack actually comes from the loop traveling along the whip, gaining speed until it reaches the speed of sound and creates a sonic boom.

The "Aperschnalzer" usually perform in groups. The whips, which have different lengths to give off different sounds, are cracked in a staccato-like rhythm. Each round is fairly short since schnalzen is physically demanding.

Over the years this tradition has developed into a popular sports. Every year the best "Schnalzer" meet to compete against each other. For the competition, each group appears before a jury and is judged on the acoustical effect of its "schnalzen".

The acoustical effect of its "schnalzen"? Sounds suspiciously like "musical whips" to me.

...I wonder if Alpine Cocktail will have some of these "instruments" at the Tirolean evening later this month...

LARCHZIACHN IN UMHAUSEN

Ein Faschnachtsbrauch völlig anderer Art, das Larchziachn wurde 1996 erstmals seit längerer Zeit von 105 Burschen der Ötztaler Gemeinde Umhausen wieder ins Leben gerufen. Die Obrigkeiten der Vergangenheit erlaubten einst dem Umhausenern, einen Lärchenbaum durch das Dorf zu ziehen, wenn im vorangegangenen Kalenderjahr kein Bursche aus der Gemeinde geheiratet hat. Das erste Larchziachn fand laut Dorfchronik im Jahre 1761 statt. Teilnahmeunlustigen wurde das Fürchten gelernt: Im Jahre 1926 mussten jene Junggesellen, die nicht beim Larchziachn anwesend waren, zwei Schilling Strafe zahlen. Andererseits, es dürfen nur Jungesellen bei dieser extrem historischen Tradition mitmachen. Aufgrund der gewichtigen Einschränkung konnte der Brauch seit jeher nur in sehr unregelmäßigen Abständen durchgeführt werden, und um ihn vor dem Untergang zu bewahren, fand sich ein Komitee zusammen, das sich über selbige hinweg- und ein Abhaltungsintervall von 4 Jahren einsetzte.

Am Samstag vor dem Umzug wird der Baum von den Junggesellen selbst geschlagen, von den großen Ästen befreit und bis in die frühen Morgenstunden strengstens bewacht, wobei die Wächter eifrig dem hochgeistigen "Lörgetgeist" zusprechen, um der Kälte der Nacht zu trotzen. Am darauffolgenden Nachmittag wird der schwere Stamm von etwa 50 starken Dorfledigen mit Sapinen an die 600 Meter vom südlichen zum nördlichen Dorfende gezogen, wobei der älteste Junggeselle vorn auf dem Baumstamm sitzt. Vorreiter und Hanswürste, sogenannte Bajazzel, führen den Zug an, im Anschluss daran tritt eine Junggesellenmusikkapelle auf, und in einer Kutsche hat das Brautpaar seinen Platz. Ihnen folgen Kinderwagen, die Plünderfuhr (so wird die Mitgift genannt) und da Sterzinger Moos, auf dem die übriggebliebenen ledigen Jungfrauen ihr Dasein zu fristen haben. Hinter dem reich geschmückten Lärchenbaum kommen Protokoll- und Marketenderwagen. Am Dorfende wird schließlich das Brautpaar verheiratet und der Baum versteigert. Eine wertvolle Finanzspritze für die Dorfgemeinschaft und auch einen Aufschwung des Selbstbewußtseins der Jungesellen...

CHOCOLATE FROM TIROL: EXQUISITE AND DELICATE

Chocolate is probably not the first thing that springs to your mind when thinking about Alpine food. But Tirol is known for its excellent milk and that's an essential ingredient for first-class chocolate.

The milk does not come from just any Dairy but from cows that spend most of their time grazing on lush mountain pastures. We are talking about Tirolean grey cattle here that have been living in the region for over 3000 years. This ancient breed is native to North and South Tirol and have perfectly adapted to the harsh mountain climate. Another advantage is that they are rather lightweight and thus do not cause damage to the soil.

Since these cows give only small quantities of milk, their numbers have been drastically reduced over the years and replaced by high-yield breeds. A group of Tirolean farmers joined forces to save this age-old breed by looking for new sales potentials and markets. And one of them is chocolate.

Since no cocoa grows in Tirol, a partner was needed. The final decision fell on the Italian Gianluca Franzoni, a young man committed to seeing cacao bean varieties become as familiar to consumers as wine grape varieties have. The combination of the best cocoa beans available and top quality Tirolean milk produces truly fine chocolate. The responsible chocolatier is Hansjörg Haas, who has by now created fifteen different kinds of chocolate ranging from "Ötztal Raspberries" to "Tirolean Walnuts" and "Alpine Rose Honey". Some chocolates come enhanced with fine schnapps from one of Tirol's most renowned distillers (Christoph Kössler).

"Die Tiroler Edle" is a classic example of how produce from two entirely different countries are combined to create one outstanding product that not only tastes and looks good, but also helps protect the local culture. Bon appetite!

HÜHNERHAUSBAU

Sehr verehrte Versicherung! Nachdem ich nun im Krankenhaus bin und wieder schreiben kann, muss ich Sie, verehrte Versicherung bitten, meinen Unfallschaden wie folgt aufzunehmen: Ich hatte vom Bau meines kleinen Häuschens noch Backsteine übrig und diese wegen der Trockenheit auf dem Speicher gelagert. Jetzt wollte ich zum Bau eines Hühnerstalls die dort oben gelagerten Steine verwenden.

Dazu erdachte ich mir folgende Maschinerie: Der Speicher hatte an der Hauswand eine Tür, worauf ich einen Balken verankerte und daran ein Bälkchen mit einer Rolle, wodurch ich ein Seil laufen ließ. An dem Seil befestigte ich eine Holzkiste, die ich dann hinauf zog. Das Seil hatte ich unten an einem Pflock festgebunden. Nun bin ich hoch gegangen und habe die Steine in die Kiste gepackt.

Nachdem ich wieder unten angekommen war, wollte ich die Steine in der Kiste langsam nach unten lassen. Dazu löste ich das Seil vom Pflock, hatte aber nicht bedacht, dass die Steine in der Kiste schwerer waren, als meine Person. Als ich das bemerkte, hielt ich das Seil ganz doll fest, damit die Steine nicht herunter stürzten und kaputt gingen, denn ich wollte ja einen Hühnerstall daraus bauen.

So ist es dann geschehen, dass mich die Steine an dem Seil nach oben zogen, wobei mir die Kiste die linke Schulter aufgerissen hat, als wir uns in der Mitte begegneten. Ansonsten bin ich gut an der Kiste vorbei gekommen. Ich habe mir dann aber oben meinen Kopf angestoßen, und zwar erst an dem Bälkchen und dann noch an dem Balken. Trotzdem habe ich aber das Seil festgehalten, damit ich nicht hinunter falle.

Im selben Augenblick ist aber die Kiste mit den Steinen unten auf dem Boden angelangt. Durch den heftigen Aufprall ist der Boden heraus gebrochen, so dass die Kiste jetzt wieder leichter war als ich. Die Folge davon war, dass ich als der schwerere Teil jetzt wieder nach unten sauste und die Umrandung der Kiste nach oben, wobei wir uns wieder in der Mitte begegneten. Dabei schrammte mir der Kistenrest die rechte Schulter.

Als die Kiste oben war, stürzte ich unten so unglücklich, dass ich mir das rechte Bein gebrochen habe und sofort in Ohnmacht fiel. Nur so konnte es passieren, dass ich das Seil losgelassen habe, was wiederum bewirkte, dass der Kistenrest wie eine Birne von oben auf mich herab fiel und mich dabei so gut traf, dass ich demnächst oben und unten ein Gebiss angepasst bekomme.

Dass der Schaden nicht noch größer ausgefallen ist, verdanke ich nur Ihrem tollen Versicherungsagenten, bei dem ich eine Unfallversicherung unterschreiben musste und zu der ich nach der Wiederherstellung meiner Gesundheit und meiner Zähne die Rechnung einreichen werde. Wenn Sie diese Rechnung dann beglichen haben, werde ich Sie wärmstens in meinem Dorf weiter empfehlen.

Mit außerordentlicher Hochachtung Bauer Gottfried Hochleitner

(von Siegmund Austen - 13.08.2004)

THE RICH MAN

Determined to "take it with him" when he died, a very rich man prayed until the Lord gave in. There was one condition: he could bring only one suitcase of his wealth. The rich man decided to fill the case with gold bullion.

The day came when God called him home. St. Peter greeted him, but told him he could not bring his suitcase. "Oh, but I have an agreement with God," the man explained.

"That's unusual," said St. Peter. "Mind if I take a look?"

The man opened the suitcase to reveal the shining gold bullion.

St. Peter was amazed. "Why in the world would you bring pavement?"

KLEINE REISE DURCH ÖSTERREICH

Tirol

The Austrian province of Tirol - which takes its name from the ancestral castle of the Counts of Tirol at Merano in Italy - is bounded on the east by Carinthia and Salzburg provinces, on the south by Italy (Alto Adige), on the west by Vorarlberg and Switzerland and on the north by Germany (Bavaria). A curiosity of geography is the enclave of Jungholz at the northwestern tip of the province, which is surrounded by Bavarian territory and within the German customs area. The province of Tirol is divided into two parts, North and East Tirol, which are separated from one another by the territory ceded to Italy in 1919 under the Treaty of St Germain - the already-mentioned 20 kilometre wide strip of land generally known as Alto Adige, but better known to Austrian and German speakers as Südtirol.

The Province of Südtirol is an autonomous province in northern Italy. The majority of the population speaks an Austro-Bavarian dialect of German and consider themselves ethnically Tyrolean. About a quarter of the province is Italian-speaking and a small minority speaks Ladin as their mother language. The Ladin are a romantic folk and Ladin (Ladino in Italian, Ladin in Ladin, Ladinisch in German) is a Rhaeto-Romance language spoken in a limited number of municipalities of the Dolomite Mountains in Northern Italy in the border regions of the provinces Trentino-Alto Adige/Südtirol and Veneto. It is officially recognized in Italy and has some official rights in the region of Trentino-Alto Adige/Südtirol.

The name of Tirol calls to mind a whole range of associations - Andreas Hofer, the patriotic leader of the Napoleonic period; Innsbruck with its famous Maria Theresa Strasse and the Goldenes Dachl (golden roof); Bergisel, the mountain on which the battle of 1809 was fought; yodeling, schuhplattler dancing, the old Tirolese costumes; forests and Alpine meadows, rocks and ice; and winter sports.

The History of Tirol is long and colourful, and rather than do it injustice here, we recommend those of you who have access to a computer and the internet to look up the following website, which has a succinct but comprehensive summary of the key elements of Tirolean history:

This territory in the heart of the Alps, with its intricate pattern of hills and valleys, is one of Europe's most popular holiday regions both in summer and winter. For many centuries it was an area of transit between Germany and Italy, its high valleys barely accessible to strangers and inhabited only by a few poor mountain peasants. These valleys still offer the same solitude and tranquillity, but most of them are now easily reached on good roads.

The people of Tirol are also noted for their cheerful good humor and love of fun. On high days and holidays many country people still wear their colorful traditional costumes. There are numerous festivals featuring costumes, marksmanship and music as well as other picturesque old customs and practices.

The landscape of northern Tirol is predominantly mountainous; and if nature has not been generous to this region in the provision of mineral resources and fertile soil she has more than made up for it by granting it abundant scenic beauties. Some of the more memorable mountains in this area include the craggy Kaisergebirge and the towering pinnacles of the Kitzbühel Alps. North of the Inn lie the Karwendel and the Wettersteingebirge with their boldly shaped limestone massifs and rugged crags and not far away the Lechtal Alps, with their gentler forms, end the chain of the Northern Calcareous Alps. Most will have heard of the Ötztal and Stubai Alps with their grand mountain scenery and large glaciers, likewise the Zillertal Alps, one of the most visited parts of Tirol. In East Tirol the dominant features are the Venediger group and the Grossglockner group, which boasts the highest mountain in the state - the Großglockner. To the south of the Drau valley tower the Lienz Dolomites, with the jagged forms and beauty of coloring of the Southern Calcareous Alps.

A charming contrast to the glaciers and the rugged rock faces of the mountains is provided by the beautiful wooded slopes and Alpine meadows between the rocky peaks and by the pastureland and fields in the valleys, particularly in the fertile Inn valley with its orchards and cornfields. At the foot of the glaciers nestle many lakes, and clear mountain streams surge down the valleys or tumble over waterfalls in the gorges.

The Table Tennis Group has kindly donated $500 to the Austrian Club this month, for use of facilities. Donations are always gratefully accepted and, with all the repairs and maintenance that seem to be required at the moment, we rest assured that the Club will undoubtedly make good use of these funds.

As a group the Table Tennis members have enjoyed their newly scheduled Friday games of late. Due to the wintry weather we have decided to meet on every second Friday in the cold months of July and August. The next scheduled meeting of the Table Tennis group will be on Friday 9th July, then on 23rd July, 6th Aug and 20th Aug. Just a closing congratulations to our oldest Ladies Group member, Millie Drebing, who is celebrating her birthday this month. Best wishes from all of us in the Ladies Group to our dear Millie.

DIE LADINER

Since 1996 Johann and Raffael Stuffer - who by the way are not related to each other - have been the successful folk music duo called "Die Ladiner".

Initially these two open-hearted and friendly men of Val Gardena formed a musical duo, predominantly giving performances at large summer festivals. They were relatively unknown, but they loved to sing. Then one day a music producer from Ortisei asked them whether they were interested in singing at the well-known international Folk Music Grand Prix. This seemingly insignificant simple question became a dramatic turning point in the musical career of these two likeable men. They took part in the 2002 season of the competition and immediately came second with their song "Allein in Einsamkeit", a song written by Johann's brother Reinhard Stuffer.

This was the beginning of an amazing career, ranging from countless TV performances to numerous awards and prizes, such as the title of "Musikantenkönig des Monats Mai" which they were awarded on May 14, 2004. To this day, if you want to see this famous folk music band "Die Ladiner" live on stage, you might consider taking part in the annual Ladin Festival (the "Ladinerfest") in Tirol where you'll hear songs like the Ladiner's hit "Beuge dich vor grauem Haar". It's well worth the trip. And if you do go, we'd love to hear about your experiences...

ENTERTAINMENT REPORT

MONTH RETROSPECTIVE:

My, oh my! What a month it has been. This year's June calendar was jam-packed with Club functions that were a little out of the ordinary, lending the Club a feeling of excitement and new energy. There was, for instance, Silver Wonderland which was just that - silvery and wonderful. Then came the classical and refined, but also casually contemporary Koehne Quartett with their string ensemble delights, closely followed by Dimi and his Bavarian "Schunkel". Closing the month we celebrated Burgenland, the Austrian province on the Hungarian border that is the home of Esterhazy and all things delicious in wine. Truly a month of variety for all who visited. Wonder what this month has in store? Read on...

FORWARD REVIEW:

We've got such a jam-packed entertainment program this year, with lots of interesting acts and events, that it's hard to keep in mind the dates of all those wonderful Events. Upcoming visits from our special guest artists from Europe and many special events for our own Club, it's all happening. Here are those most important dates again to pencil into your diaries:

- Christmas in July: On Saturday 10th and Sunday 11th July we are celebrating with a little Christmas cheer. A touch of spice and magic on a cold winter's night does wonders for the heart and soul. Get into the spirit of this occasion and enjoy it with us!
- La Dolce Vita: Saturday 17th July is our Italian evening with Scorpio Duo. We will have the Italian musicians, we will have something Italian on the menu, now it is up to you. We may even have question and answer time i.e. English/German to Italian. I wonder what naughty or tricky little questions the MC of the night can think up! Now, anybody for a tarantella?...

- Tiroler Abend: On Saturday 24th July we are celebrating Tirol, the territory in the heart of the Alps, with a delicious dinner, dancing and a band befitting this special occasion by name and by enthusiasm none other than "Alpine Cocktail". Perhaps the DJ "Anton aus Tirol" will be there, or the historic tirolean iceman "Oetzi"??? Do not miss this fun night of alpine frivolity.
- "Die Schmalzler vom Bayrischen Wald": Superstars from Bavaria. They've performed in the Grand Prix der Volksmusik and at the Kastelruther Spatzen Fest, played with Captain Cook and his singing saxophone band, rubbed shoulders with Judith & Mel, Monika Martin, Tommy Ohrner, Ireen Sheer & Dagmar Frederic and had a "gaudi" with the Alpentrio Tirol. And now they're coming to the Austrian Club to play for you. When? On Saturday 13th November. Grab your tables fast before they're gone...

Please refer to our Program on the back page for other functions
