Abortion

ABORTION

Dr Barnard Nathanson presided over 100,000 abortions until one day he realised that the heart of a baby begins to beat within the womb 18 days after conception. He never did another abortion.

[Family World News. 11th November 2008]

If it took Nathanson 100,000 murders to wake up to himself, how many more million babies are going to die before politicians do the same?

Odd Bed Fellows.

I have seen a few bizarre political relationships in my time that had very little to do with the welfare of our nation. For instance, I have always held a degree of respect for John Howard and Kim Beazley, both political leaders, and 'enemies' of the recent past, the latter whom I thought would rise to be a worthy Prime Minister way back when he was Minister for Defence years before he met his sad demise. My respect for both men dissipated completely however when they got into bed together to assassinate the political career of Pauline Hanson, and in doing so, they lowered Australian politics into the gutter, and shame must rest forever on both men who finally got their just desserts.

The cartoon below depicts a far more dangerous liaison of bed fellows that has a lot to do with the welfare of our nation. It depicts John Brumby climbing into the cot with Malcolm Turnbull. What for goodness sake do these two opposites have in common? Well for a start they pamper to the radical sodomites in our society and worse, they slaughter in the womb as many Australians as they possibly can. They are ably assisted by the Federal Government and the Opposition who replace slaughtered Australian babies with countless hundreds of thousands of foreigners who do not abort their children like Australian “Christians” do, but who totally reject the Christ of our founding Fathers, and whose actions and escalating numbers are destined to destroy our Christian heritage forever. And who really cares anymore?

As stated, Brumby and Turnbull alone are not the instigators of this lunatic world-wide slaughter en-masse of fully formed babies, they are merely consorting marionettes dancing to the strings of the powers from hell, and are willing co-conspirators of Satan, the murderer. They possess between them, not a single atom of moral fibre to their back bones. The third clandestine member of my group of three stooges who enjoy spitting in the face of God is of course Rudd who is at the moment steering a Rudder-less ship into dangerous waters. I have a little more to say about him at the end of my article.

You might think at first glance that my a-political cartoon of Dr Brumby and nurse Turnbull is a sickening analogy of a woman having an abortion. You are wrong. It is rather a challenge to our olfactory senses. The chook being gutted is being prepared for the oven and will inevitably give off delicious aromas as we await a mouth-watering baked dinner. The aroma of aborted babies however, as they vaporise up the chimneys of hospital furnaces, reminds us more of the horrific days of Belsen and of the hundreds of Nazi death camps all over Europe.

I wept this morning [being a TPI war veteran] when I viewed a You tube sent to me of a man singing a mournful song in memory of our gallant diggers who have fallen in many places over the years of many battles. At least we have a decently erected stone somewhere to remind us of their sacrifice. What homage do we pay then to the countless younger Australians who have fallen, having been murdered at birth by those elected in Canberra and the States to protect our best interests? Maybe the war department ought to strike a special medal of gallantry to be awarded to the politicians with the highest infant death rate. It's a different war though this one, politicians are slaughtering their own-not the enemy.

In closing this preface to my cartoon, let me say I write this article under an enormous pressure to do so. Maybe it is God prodding me to do it. I don't know. But as I was in the very act of writing it last evening, an email lobs on my computer from “Catch The Fire Ministries.” Danny Nahlia never got it right every time, but I believe he got it right this time. He said he recently had a dream and God woke him up to tell him the meaning of the dream. It was this. “My wrath is about to be released upon Australia and in particular Victoria for approving the slaughter of innocent children in the womb.”

Our godless and placebo ‘Christian’ politicians can go on their merry way marrying all the sodomites that take their fancy, and slaughtering all the innocent children their hearts desire, they can continue on their merry way also of treating the murdering of babies in the same manner as shooting plague rabbits, but you may have noticed the change of attitude and the diminished looks of confidence on the faces of Rudd and Swan, and their sudden loss of arrogant confidence in the country they are failing to lead. Their honey moon is over! Our nation is facing its greatest challenge and storm clouds are looming dark and low.

We will not continue much longer to spit in the face of God and stir up his wrath with our abominable behaviour and taken-for-granted immunity. There is yet however, despite all the gloom and the doom of my presentation, one glimmer of hope to the individual, and although it would take nothing less than a miracle, hope for governments also.

That miracle is repentance!! Repentance is turning from our individual sins and crimes and deciding to do things God's way. Don't try to fool yourself. God has put within you a mechanism that tells you right from wrong and no man or woman is without excuse. God's way is not murder and it is not sexual perversion and we all know it. The lifeboat that will save our self-destructing world from sinking is the lifeboat of God's unfathomable and inexplicable love towards us.

“If we confess our sins [even the murder of babies] He will forgive us of our sins and cleanse us from all unrighteousness.” 1 John 1:9.

If we do not confess our sins and change, the world will continue on its present course of implosion and nothing will save us.

This then is my impression of Spring Street. On the right of Brumby are thousand of howling women wanting to kill their offspring. On the left are the guffawing abortionist political fools who think Brumby's remarks are reasons for mirth.

The words below ought to be added to Brumby's address because they are appropriate. Turnbull had to excuse himself from appearing in my cartoon at the last minute. He was called away to attend the marriage of Clary and Max-two blokes. Turnbull thinks that men marrying each other is normal and the way to go, and that perversion is all in our minds. To think all those Aussie diggers died on foreign soil spilling their blood to protect this filthy country from what it has become and to preserve what we once called decency?? They all died in vain.

"In gutting these chooks in the House Comrades, I wish to prove that our Abortion Bill is not only just and fair, but that it makes a dill of the State Coroner because murder is still against the law. In God's sight all creatures are considered equal, therefore unborn and unwanted brats have the same rights as dead chooks, and that of course is no rights at all."

Abortion.

"Before I formed thee in the belly, I knew thee: and before thou camest forth out of the womb I sanctified thee, and I ordained thee a prophet unto the nations. [Jer.1:5]

"I've trusted you O Lord from childhood. Yes, you have been with me from birth: from my mother's womb you have cared for me." King David-Psalm 71:5,6.

"Curse it all for not shutting my mothers's womb, for letting me be born in all this trouble. Why didn't I die at birth as I came from the womb. Why did my mother let me live? Cursed be the night when I was conceived. Let that day be turned to darkness." Job 3.

Even a cretin, let alone a godless politician, can see from these passages of scripture that God creates life from the moment of conception. As we allow some of the more erudite in our company to continue to attempt to convince themselves that God got it all wrong in their inimitable defiance and paganism, and their self-deceptive rationalism that a baby in the womb is only a nothing, our droughts will worsen and our society will degenerate into the mad house it is fast becoming because God has robbed us of our common sense. Our blatant defiance of God's laws ensure that we are a ship on a course for certain destruction and disaster.

Below then is the simple truth as I see it. It depicts the unfathomable behaviour of a so-called educated and sophisticated society turning in on itself in a frenzy of infanticide.

I wonder what God would have done if one of our modern witch doctors had gotten to Jereniah as he was being born, and sucked his brains out. The same could be said for Churchill, Montgomery, McArthur, the apostle Paul, King David, all the rest of us, and terrible as it may sound, even Jesus Christ himself. After all, Herod tried to kill Jesus when he had not even reached his second birthday.

Let's call a spade a spade! The question must be asked in relation to the matter of abortion how a woman of sound mind and moral conscience can voluntarily open her legs to allow some butcher in a white gown masquerading under the respectability of a stethoscope and a prescription pad, to suck the brains out of her son or her daughter who are only moments away from drawing in the first precious breaths of life that will usher them into an existential experience of the unknown, and the unpredictable, and the thrilling experiences we call life. The ‘doctors’ involved in abortions ought to hold the dead and disfigured baby up in the air in order to show the mother what she has done before they toss the warm still-twitching corpse into a garbage bin to be taken to the nearest incinerator.

Have you ever seen a human head without a brain and a crushed skull? I have. I was traveling to work one evening and had just arrived at the intersection leading into town. I gave way at the round about and when I looked to my left toward the crest of a hill, I saw cars parked in the middle of the main road and the flashing lights of stationary police vehicles. You don’t really need to be told it’s a “fatal.” You just feel it in your bones when you come across one, and you know it. A newly married local young couple from Cooranbong had been driving into Morisset just on dusk, and as they approached the last sweeping uphill curve, the driver veered across to the wrong side of the road and hit an oncoming car head on.

I attended the post mortem of the young couple conducted at our hospital the following day. The injuries as you can imagine were horrific and it seemed a sick joke any coroner insisting we cut these two corpses up to ‘establish the cause of death.’ Blind Freddy could see what killed them. The young bride’s both femur bones were snapped off at the hip and at least 35 cm of each bare bone was rammed up into her stomach. Her insides looked like she had been flogged with a cat and nine tails. Her inner rib cage was severely lacerated and her liver was torn to shreds. But it was the injuries of her husband that still haunt me to this day. They remind me of what aborted babies must look like. When the husband’s car rolled on impact, his head went out the window, and the roof of the car structure on top of the door landed on his head. This action smashed every bone in his face and skull and his brains were forced out of a small hole in the top of his head and they squirted right across the highway.

I hope what I am saying makes you a little ill, ill enough that is, to make you aware of the fact that we are allowing the murderers in Parliament to legitimise the actions of many so-called ‘medical’ hypocrites who swore the hypocrite’s oath to preserve life, and their capable female nursing cohort partners in crime, to deliberately murder 100,000 Australians a year in the most barbaric way imaginable.

I wished you could have seen the terrible contorted looks we could artificially manufacture on the face of the bloke we were cutting up. Wherever we pushed his face, it stayed there. To one side or the other. We could even turn his face backwards and it would stay there, after all his face was now merely a flattened rubber mask. But it was haunting. The monsters who earn a living murdering babies in the same manner have reached the moral caste of the Nazis who killed so many people, they were totally desensitised to what they were doing and what they had become. How can these baby killers go home after a day in the killing fields, look into the faces of their own kids, and sleep at night?

Of course as humans we are master rationalists. We are also crazy! We spend millions of dollars to kill full-term babies, and millions more in an endeavour to save the lives of premature ones. Baby killers are not only going to answer God for murder, but they are going to have to explain why they destroyed God’s will and plan for each person they killed. [See passage in Jeremiah at beginning of article.] We are shown many times in the Bible that God has his hand upon our lives from the very moment of conception—and even before that event. Paul said of his calling by God, “But when it pleased God, who separated me from my mother’s womb, and called me by his grace.” [Gal. 1:15] That ought to remind baby butchers that they are destroying God’s handiwork and will one day answer for it. King David babbled his remorse to God for the evil crimes he had committed and moaned the following words in the well-known Psalm 51, “Behold, I was shapen in iniquity, and in sin did my mother conceive me.” That’s not a bad word for today. Every child who has ever been conceived by parents who intended to kill them, was conceived in sin.

The pro abortion weirdo’s would have us believe a foetus is a “thing” or an “it” or a lump of placental matter that has no life and even less significance. Yet we have clearly seen the evidence in the scriptures I have quoted, that the opposite applies. For the sophisticated pagans and heathens who prefer to mock and deride God’s Word, let’s put religion totally aside for a moment. What makes baby killers any better than the gaggle of lunatics who have gone before us. Do I have to name Hitler, Stalin, Mao Tse Tung, Idi Amin, Pol Pot, Saddam Hussein, Castro, and all their demonised mates who were corporately responsible for the senseless slaughter of hundreds of millions of innocent people? Mind you, the baby killers are catching up rapidly in the numbers of murders committed in their universal abortion slaughter houses where countless millions of innocents are being put down each and every year.

When still-born babies are delivered dead, they usually receive a decent burial and their parents grieve, which is the normal process. Yet when 100,000 babies marked for abortion each year in Australia are born perfectly healthy, they are murdered by politicians and quacks and tossed into rubbish bins and burnt. Are we all mad or what? The number of abortions in America is well over a million annually, and world-wide, the number would be countless millions. I have little concern for the rest of the world because they have to answer for their own crimes, but never let me hear again of this great “South Land of the Holy Spirit,” because this great south land is a disgrace, it is heading for immense problems, and is balancing on the knife edge of God’s imminent judgment. I contend that this so-called great brown land is bursting at the seams with God-defying rat bags who apparently have never heard of the commandment “Thou shalt not kill.” Hitler had at least three reasons that I could think of to kill 60 million souls. Firstly, he had an agenda to set up a millennial reign on the earth and decided to remove without conscience any person who might interfere with his plans. That included Jews, the educated, and people who looked at him the wrong way. Secondly, he was obviously brilliantly mad, and finally he was controlled by demonic powers.

What reason then can we give for our behaviour in slaughtering our babies in government-funded death clinics every day right across our land? What agenda do we have? None, we do it for the fun and the money and the sheer convenience.

Thank God we have some medico’s who are a little more sympathetic toward this vile practice. They don’t suck brains out, they get at the babies a little earlier in the pregnancy and tear their little arms and legs and heads off with a suction device that leaves a perfectly formed human being a heap of minced meat in a bucket. Is it any wonder many women who have abortions end up neurotic, depressed and dysfunctional—they deserve to be. How can a mother simply just lie there and allow her own flesh and blood to be destroyed in the same room? Abortion on demand is yet another clear example of the majority of the gutless wonders in Canberra who have given Almighty God the finger sign in order to placate the minority, and have given us yet again a guilt-edged guarantee that their amoral, defiant stupidity will very soon attract God’s attention, and we will soon be called upon as a country to pay a terrible price.

It is a medical fact that the foetus within the woman is aware of, and affected by, both external stimuli and the emotional state of the mother. Rejection is often experienced in the womb by a baby who carries the consequences of that rejection for the rest of its life that may manifest itself in many tormenting symptoms. A “thing” or an “it” or a piece of blubber as some claim of an unborn child, is quite incapable of such experiences. An interesting conversation is observed by Mary the woman chosen by God to deliver His Son into the world. Mary’s older cousin Elizabeth was also pregnant at the same time carrying John the Baptist. We read in Luke chapter 1 of the account in verse 44. “And lo, as soon as the voice of thy salutation sounded in mine ears, the babe [John] leapt in my womb for joy.”

The only thing that will make many babies leap within the womb today is the terror that awaits them at the hands of some butcher the minute they stick their heads into the world. Abortionists including politicians, doctors, nurses and radical feminists are heartless, totally numbed as to the sanctity of life, and are murderers of the ilk that can easily match or surpass the most evil of killers of any past era.

May I give you World Book's definition of insanity?: "Lack of good sense. Any state of mental unsoundness in which a person [or government] is not considered competent."

May I now give you examples of insanity? The Rudd government that keeps squawking about cost cutting is, according to an email I received on June 3rd 08, [check the facts out for yourself] paying refugees a total of $2,470 per month plus many other benefits. A refugee couple with 4 children receive $118,685 per year. That's 10 times more than our starving pensioners receive.

On ABC FM news this morning [June 4th] they announced the Rudd government was going to allocate monies to assist abortions in other countries. Below is the picture of a friend's baby boy born this week [June 30th 2008] after spending just 5 months in the womb. As you can see, every attempt is being made to ensure that this little gentleman reaches the potential that God intends him to. This 5 month old wonder of creation is not an "it," a "thing," or an inconvenience to be gotten rid of, it is a human being created by a Divine hand and comprises a body, a soul,[mind] and a spirit.

I warn the butchers who include politicians, doctors, nurses, and feminine lobbyists who deliberately kill babies, that they are not only murderers, but they are violating and interfering with God's ordained plan and purpose for each baby they slaughter. For such atrocities may they share the future hellish delights of their co-exterminators that include as stated before, the likes of Hitler, Mao Tse Tung, Stalin, Amin, Castro, Mugabe, and a host of other modern genocidal maniacs.

The little battler below weighs in at just 961 grams [2 pounds] and measures just 30 cm [12 inches]

I was talking to the baby's father only yesterday, October 26th 2008. They named the little boy Caleb. Caleb is home now, out of danger and is on his way to growing into manhood. Isn't it strange Caleb was also one of the spies sent into the Promised land by Moses to spy out the enemy at the end of the long 40 year meander in the wilderness after God had set the people free from the tyranny of the Egyptians. Isn't it strange also that little Caleb [pictured below] has served the same purpose in his short miraculous life in that he proved beyond the shadow of a doubt who the real enemy is...the butchers [abortionists] who would have slaughtered him if they were given half the chance.

Let me assure you on the authority of the Word of God that Weirner and all of those who have followed in his brain-sucking footsteps will stand before the Bar on that terrible resurrection day and give a half-baked account before the living God of their heinous crimes in slaughtering innocent human beings. Their excuses will not stand up! They will be consigned to inexplicable suffering in eternal hell fire.

CAN I PUT IT ANY CLEARER ?
