The Peril We Face

AUSTRALIA

The Peril We Face

As I have passed my three score years and ten through what can only be described as a series of miracles, I have decided to do what I feel God told me to do and that is to write this article as a goad, [Eccles 11:11] or if you like, a whip or an electric prod, so—here I go!

Australia is facing a new dawn under a Government led by a lip-licking Christian fake whose first task seems to be legitimizing the foul act of sodomy in every State. He is accompanied by a humanist deputy female who has rammed work relations down our throat long enough to make us all throw up, and who has set herself the task of destroying religion in all schools. The hoodwinked Christian masses who voted this lot in I have no doubt will answer God for their actions, because like Rudd, most of them are only placebo Christians. I am forced to admit however on their behalf that it was a little difficult to re elect the last bunch of hypocrites led by a good Prime Minister with a swollen head who had lost the ability to believe he could lose an election.

These then are my observations of where our country is headed and of the consequences of our unique ability to humiliate, denigrate and ignore a holy God.

When I was a young teenager, I was conveyed 4 miles to Church on the handle bars of a push bike where I attended 4 services every Sunday. I was fortunate enough as were many of my peers of that era to sit under the ministry of one of those characteristically Godly old men who preached faithfully the gospel of Jesus Christ, of the sins of mankind, the forgiveness of God, and the soon return of Christ to the world to take away His own. I made my decision for Christ in those days and was soon baptized by full immersion. The preaching of old Mr. Adams was so effective he put the fear of God into me and I remember the time I begged God in my childish prayers to please hold up his coming so that I could have the time to spend my two week holiday at the beach. He did. And he still hasn't come.

Even the Apostle Paul way back in the times of Christ was encouraging the Church at Corinth to "keep going" because they were expecting the return of Christ even back then, and succeeding generations of Christians have all been looking faithfully to the heavens hoping that Jesus would return in their lifetime. It is high time I think to ask the question "Is He ever going to return at all?" The signs are all around us that He is in fact overdue.

Our childhood in those days was simple, uncomplicated, and enjoyable as well it should have been in homes that were stabilised by such rare commodities as a mother and a father who cared and loved even in the midst of a depression and a world war, and who were committed to a lifetime of fidelity and faithfulness no matter what the circumstances. Of course we were no fairies growing up. We found many ways to display our boyish manhood. We would wag school, smoke cigarettes, and smash a few street light bulbs at night just to enjoy the pretty blue smoke that would spew into the night air. Ah no, we were no angels but we look back on childhoods that were happy, and despite the fact that there was no money, we all made our own simple entertainment—cubby houses in the bush, riding our push bikes for miles down to the Fairfield river, and spending countless care-free hours in the outdoors or down in one of the air raid shelter dug-outs making a cigarette out of newspaper and rabbit dung tobacco.

We had cracker night which was the highlight of the year. The ice man would come along with his horse-drawn cart and we would eagerly pick up the chips of ice that flew all over the place as the ice man picked clear a block to carry into the next house. There was the ‘Bottle-o’ the Rabbit man, the bloke who would come on his weekly round trying to sell wooden clothes props, and the old bloke who carted two heavy suitcases for miles and miles door to door trying to flog off his haberdashery to poor women like my Mum who at best could only afford a lay-by for a new pair of bloomers or knickers, or a new table cloth that might have caught her eye.

In those days mentally ill and dysfunctional kids were unheard of!

What have we got today? We have a situation that has brought our civilisation to crisis point, a situation that is impossible to survive. It has all been caused by a malicious, deliberate, concocted, and devious plan to move mankind away from the simple principles of goodness, decency, fairness, justice, common sense, morality, and the simple conditions and demands of a righteous God.

These factors have been contributed to greatly by the big thinkers of our day, the humanists, human rights exponents, so-called civil libertarians, judges, and politicians. They have corporately devised a system under the direction of Satan, of neo stupidity and godlessness that has thrust upon us all the very threat to the survival of our existence, and created an atmosphere of absolute hell for our children and the homes in which they ‘live.’ That is, if you could call it living.

Whitlam was the humanistic stooge who implemented walk-out marriages ably assisted by his mate Spud Murphy, and Frazer, the disillusioned ex P.M. who lost his pants, made it all easier by destroying marital unions via Australia Post. Costello was the Christian fundamentalist who put a new slant on the sanctity of marriage and God’s holy laws by giving millions of tax payer dollars to young girls to create a nation of bastards outside of legal wedlock, who inevitably and predictably had as many illegitimate babies as they could, or will in the future. Most of them have admitted to splurging Costello’s evil bounty upon themselves either in the purchase of self adorning apparel, lusts of the flesh, or injecting it into their veins. Certainly it has been proven the babies got precious little of the money.

Our judges appear to be suffering from overheated brains caused perhaps by the ridiculous Daniel Boone fleece they wear on their heads. They appear to be oblivious to the warning that God gives to the Bar for not meting out appropriate and harsh judgment to those who deserve it. A 3 year old boy was bashed to death by his mother and father recently in New Zealand. There was not one inch of the boys battered remains that was not marked, cut, or bashed. The fool in the pig presiding over the case sentenced both parents to a mere 4 years jail because “their actions could not be constituted as murder.” One of our own fleece- adorned crusaders by the name of Bongiorno has made a name for himself becoming infatuated with violent criminals. He sentenced two psychopaths to 3 years in a detention centre for merely jumping on and crushing an old woman’s chest, strangling and raping her, and making off with ten bucks. They showed no remorse for their actions whatsoever but in fact appealed against the ridiculous sentence. Bongiorno then sentenced a girl in Mildura to almost nothing for stealing a knife out of Coles and plunging it into a ‘friends’ chest killing her. Old Bernie insisted the crime was “not premeditated.” I could write a book on this bloke’s behaviour but who would believe it?

Then came along the Maddison’s and the Richmond’s and the civil libertarians who hoodwinked brain-dead politicians into believing that it would be a good idea and create a financial bounty if they kicked all the mentally ill out onto the streets and closed all mental hospitals. This has resulted in the disaster that anyone with a peanut for a brain would realize from the very start was inevitable. Elderly citizens who deserve better have now had the responsibility forced upon them of looking after their chronically, mentally ill sons and daughters. The so-called ‘Community Health Care System’ that the governments implemented ‘to save money’ has in fact cost many times more than what it did to finance properly run institutions, and the Community Care system has proven an absolute and total failure that has clogged up emergency departments of public hospitals and driven thousand to their death by suicide. But don’t lose hope, our intrepid politicians have been blinded to the disaster they have created by their total lack of brains and insight plus their total inability to ever admit they got it wrong. Their hands are now overheating by the vicious rubbing together at the prospects of the bounty they are going to reap by the flogging off of priceless real estate upon which once stood the hospital estates that were the bastions of hope for our mentally ill.

The plans and inexplicable stupidity of our politicians are now beginning to bear real fruit. The majority of our homes are now becoming mini mad houses in which many of our youth can no longer bear or tolerate. De facto relationships eagerly financed by godless half-wit politicians who ignore and violate God’s clear warnings of the consequences of fornication, have led to vile child abuse of indescribable proportions, and the break down of the very social fabric of the family unit is now in full swing and cannot be reversed. We are on an unavoidable course heading for a collision of total and absolute disaster.

Then we come to the hydro cephalic mentality of Keating who told us that we, the people, are the best judges of TV censorship, so he left it all in the hands of the public and TV producers. Last week a demon-inspired loud mouth by the name of Gordon Ramsey used the “F” word 80 times in a one-hour cooking show and nothing was done about it. Keating’s self-censorship nightmare has come home to roost and the television in our land that is now not fit for pigs is thoroughly enjoyed, witnessed, and watched by the pigs that still enjoy it, and the parent sows that produce and legitimise it. Of course none of them have sufficient grey matter nor the moral insight to understand that their filthy programs have turned our youth into the foulest-mouthed bunch of riff-raff since the day of Federation. Its not the Ramsey’s that are really to blame for what is happening, it’s the producers, program directors and Station owners who are hell bent on showing us how far they can push the boundaries of purulent filth and to totally smash what once stood for moral decency. What they are doing in fact is offending the youth and children of our land by their behavior, and when the day arrives when the lid of their coffins is mercifully shut on their filthy faces, a terrible fate awaits them. Jesus said “Woe to those who offend the least of these my little children. It would be better for them to have a stone tied around their necks and that they be cast into the sea.” [Rather than what I have in store for them]

That brings us to entertainment in general. Are there any guidelines or limitations left? Can we now not clearly see the overt evidences of what a God-rejecting human race inflicts upon itself? Our kids are committing thousands of murders every day after school blowing heads off people and creating maelstroms of blood and guts on computer ‘games’. Though I have not put my foot inside a picture theatre for over 35 years, I am none the less well aware of what people are allowing to enter their minds through the godless filth, depravity and violence they classify as entertainment. I am somewhat amused listening to Tony Delroy’s film appraisal evenings. He has a bloke on his program regularly who classifies the good and bad points of the films of the week and then gives them a mark out of a thousand. How would these fools know the difference between good and bad when they allow their minds to be polluted by 20 films a week? Films and television today are the arch weapon of Satan who has deceived, brain washed and desensitised even the most devout of Christians who have become unable or unwilling to discern right from wrong and who have no concept of the holiness that God demands of His followers. Satan's work over the airwaves is so efficient and effective, it has been estimated that half of all evangelists and Ministers of religion in the United States are addicted to, or are troubled by, internet pornography. What were they doing watching it in the first place, preparing for their Sunday sermon?

In our homes today, many parents of the mid-age bracket have no concept of morality, were never taught the basics of life in Sunday Schools, and have no concept of right or wrong, of the existence of God, and of a forthcoming judgment. Nor of the merits of discipline, or of how to properly raise a child. It is a clear case of the blind leading the blind. Many parents recently openly confessed to allowing their young teenage children to drink alcohol and to allow them to bring their boyfriend and girlfriend into the home to sleep and have sex. It is this very generation of parents that have drawn the dividing line between the past and the future. It is a generation that has fallen away from God, is floundering, and is leading future generations into a godless turmoil that is too awful to think about. It is a generation directly responsible for teenage binge drinking that is in, and of itself, a damnable indictment to the inner sufferings and torment of our youth. Binge drinking will not be stopped. It will escalate to the tempo of the God-rejecting degenerates who spawned these ill begotten kids—kids who deserved better, who should have been sent to Sunday School or Sabbath School where they might have had a chance to survive the world in which they are living. The very chance that was afforded to me sixty years ago.

The police are going to be done over by binge drinking kids. The cops will lose in the long run because there is no power or authority that will be up to the task of counteracting the hate, resentment, and anger that festers within this growing army of young souls and minds that are the tragic and neglected results of parental stupidity and irresponsibility. And how are we going to cope with the behaviour of yet another army, the results of Costello's conscription of illegitimate poor defenseless and innocent little bastards who are going to demand one day why they had a 14 year old mother sponsored by a despicable self-serving 'Christian' government, and why they had the pick of 9 or up to a dozen different fathers. Who is going to deal with their hatred and crime? It certainly won't be the man who caused it all. We are at this present moment, on the very verge of the disintegration of our society.

What's the prognosis? Where are we going to end up? I have something important to tell you that I have no doubt will brighten up your day. It certainly brightens mine up because it reminds me how very close the coming of Jesus Christ really is! Firstly, let me apologise profusely to the atheists, agnostics and the masses of in-betweens who think God is an Easter bunny and a Christmas pudding. I must apologise to them all for obtaining my information from the Bible. I think most of you know what the Bible is. It's that old black, leather-covered thing with the dust all over it in a forgotten corner somewhere. What it really is in fact is the Word of God that told us three thousand years ago exactly what would happen today, and that has in fact, really happened. Pity most of us haven't taken any notice. The Bible tells us something that many of us won't want to hear. Paul writes to Timothy in 66 AD and tells him exactly what its going to be like at the end of our present age. He writes, "But know this, in the last days, perilous [hazardous-risky-unsafe-dangerous] times will come. For men will be lovers of themselves, lovers of money, proud, blasphemers, disobedient to parents, unthankful, unholy, unloving, unforgiving, slanderers, without self-control, brutal, despisers of good, traitors, headstrong, haughty, lovers of pleasure rather than lovers of God, having a form of godliness but denying the power thereof."

We all ought to take a bow. We have achieved everything that Paul said we would. There is a high price to pay for defying and ignoring Almighty God, and God is about to pick up our IOU's, and we are going to pay dearly.

God specifically detests homosexuality and likens homosexuals to animals and clearly warns us of the consequences of such activity. He even showed us what He would do about it in destroying Sodom and Gomorrah and that included the total decimation of all the lame-brained innocent by-standers who were happy enough to "look on" and do nothing about it. It seems we have chosen to forget that event in history. We have a Victorian Police Commissioner by the name of Nixon who actually PAYS her off duty officers to march with the perverts. Nixon's behaviour is understandable because she trained under a Superman called Peter Ryan whom they brought over from the Mother land to do the impossible—clean up the N.S.W. Police Force. He had as much chance of doing that as Nixon has of cleaning up her Force, or of what I have of flying over the moon backwards. All Ryan achieved was to fill his pockets full of tax payer's money and to give consent to the pansies in his force to march in the Gay Mardi Gras. It must be asked of both Nixon and Ryan how they would expect one of their homosexual male police officers to act if they caught a couple of perverts having it on in a public toilet. Could we be thick enough to think one homosexual would arrest another? Would they uphold the law? [big joke] Or would the attending so-called 'officer' arrest the offenders, or join in the party? Nixon has set a fine example, as if the public opinion of police wasn't low enough already. The Armed services have now picked up the stinking bait and have followed suit. We are a shame and a disgrace and I personally am now ashamed to be called an Australian.

Our new Prime Minister, who bears the name of Rudd, is another pretend Christian having a form of godliness but denying the power thereof, who has overtly displayed his love for Christ by setting about to legalise homosexuality in all States and to clearly identify himself with persons and practices that God specifically calls an abomination. So, we, as a nation, will be thus called upon sooner or later to pay the inevitably price. Let me remind Rudd and others of what God says about homosexuality. It is quoted from the Bible that many including Rudd obviously do not read. It warns us where the likes of Rudd are leading us. "Homosexuality is absolutely forbidden, for it is an enormous sin. Do not defile yourselves in any of these ways for these are the things the heathen do. If you do them, I am going to cast you out of the land." [Lev 18] "So God let them go and let them do all these evil things so that even their women turned against God's natural plan for them and had sex with each other. And the men instead of having normal sex relations with women, burned with lust doing shameful things with other men, as a result getting paid within their souls for the penalty they so richly deserve." [Rom 1] Perhaps this might convince Rudd as he heads for Canberra to give impetus to gay marriages, but I very much doubt it, "Don't fool yourselves, those who live immoral lives, who are idol worshipper [like football freaks] adulterers, or homosexuals, will have no share in the Kingdom of God." I Cor 6:9 LB]

Thousands of sport obsessed families who worship snotty-nosed foul-mouthed sporting heroes are going to be kicked out of their homes onto the streets in the near future. Prices of food are going to soar beyond the reach of the average worker. There is going to be starvation and a crime wave that no police force will be able to cope with. The cops have clearly shown us they can't even cope with what we've got now. God robs infidels of their common sense and it is patently clear to all that He has taken the common sense out of the heads of many of our judges and politicians. Canberra has been directly responsible for the destruction of our agricultural industry. We have stood hopelessly by watching our farmers plow their crops in and blowing their brains out whilst our 'honourable' Members were busily employed making us totally dependant on a food supply grown in Chinese faeces that comes to our shores with no health checks. I don't have to tell you what's going to happen when a world food shortage arrives and the Chinese cut off our food supplies.

Politicians from both parties have been actually financing its population for a one-way trip to hell. It pays its population to fornicate. Fornication is sexual intercourse outside of legal marriage. In Galatians 5 we read, "But fornication and all uncleanness, let it not be named amongst you. Let no one deceive you with empty words, because of these things, the wrath of God comes upon the children of disobedience." Do you know what happens when the wrath of God comes upon the children of disobedience? He usually hands them over to another country to be punished. America at the moment is at the most serious crossroads in its history. One needs only to look at the calibre of the Presidential candidates at the forthcoming elections to draw the obvious conclusions. America is totally bankrupt and will never recover from its 12 trillion dollar, and rapidly rising debt. It is being crushed at the moment by floods, twisters, and other national disasters. It is bleeding to death by a stupid and senseless war in Iraq that should never have happened. If she falls because of debt, or because the High Court of the land has defiled God, or because of its immorality, or because Washington is the centre of Masonry and the Illuminati, who then will defend Australia? Who then will prevent friendly neighbours to our north from invading our land and hacking us to pieces? The more moronically minded of our nation guffaws at such a concept, but who in fact could stop such an invasion if God says "Enough is enough" and Indonesia decides to make a move? Such a "move" would not be too difficult, after all, we send them millions of dollars in aid every year to help them build up their military might, and we have even been stupid enough to bring their Army Chiefs over here to carry out maneuvers in the Northern Territory just to show them all how vulnerable we are to the 220 million Muslims on our northern doorstep.

Rudd and Gillard had better be careful how far they go in treating God like a fool, and we had better be even more careful in exactly what we let them get away with.

It would be profitable if we could look to the Church for hope, protection, and safety, but today, the greatest snares and deceptions to both the Church and the world, is the Church itself. The true Church is not a building but an elect group of souls who are known only to God Himself. The true Church is thus an invisible entity of which I sincerely trust and believe that I am one. The true Christian is one who has accepted Jesus Christ into his or her life as God's sole provision for their sins, not only that, but who are determined to die to self and all that the world offers, and to be prepared to even die for their faith.

Sadly today we have reached an era where many Church so-called leaders are leading the masses into hell. It is the age of great deception. It is the age of boozing Pastors who ignore Paul's clear mandate "not to be given to any wine." It is the age of divorced clergy who are clearly told the criteria for the ministry is to be the husband of one wife. It is the age of ordained homosexual perverts who are doomed to hell with those who are stupid enough to follow them. It is the age when millions are being deceived by modern day TV evangelist Gurus who sweat and scream and make people fall over and who reap millions of dollars from the gullible fools who take notice of them and who wouldn't know false doctrine and sham even if it hit them on the head. We have arrived at the most dangerous era of the false prophets and Jesus clearly warns us in Matt 7:15 "Beware of false prophets who come to you in sheep's clothing, but inwardly they are ravening wolves. Who are the ravening wolves if not those who are making millions out of 'merchandising the gospel'?"

Jesus warns of the signs of the times: "Then many false witnesses will rise up and deceive many, and because lawlessness will abound, the love of many will grow cold." He goes on to say in Matt 24:11, "And false prophets shall arise and show great signs and wonders, so as to deceive the very elect." Was there ever such a time in history when we are seeing these very things before our eyes on Christian television? We have reached the terrifying age when millions of Christians are being deceived and led into hell by shysters who rant and rave, attired in the most extravagant opulence, well shod, and living in earthly mansions, feigning to represent a Christ who owned nothing. It is the age of deception—Beware!

Hard working and loyal Pastors and Ministers are having their hearts broken by the disillusioned of the flock who keep walking out the back door of their Churches never to return. On the other hand we see the Holy-Rolling Mega Churches with all their coloured lights, screaming youth, and pumped up Pastors who continue ceaselessly to vomit out their doctrines of self worth and prosperity and whose congregations dance a merry tune to the Devil's beat complete with raised hands, emulating disco mania. Who do they think they are fooling? I have often wondered why I become decidedly agitated and stressed every time I attempt to listen to the music on Christian radio. I can only stand about 5 minutes of the stuff before I flick it off and reach for a valium. I thought it was just my age that was the problem and rationalised my behaviour with that "generation gap" stuff. But no way, there is a reason for my peculiar response after all. The well-read and highly respected Rick Warren let slip in informing us of the dangers of modern Christian music. Warren is one of America's "leaders of the faith," yet openly stated this ridiculous and Satanically-inspired classic, "It does not matter what kind of music comes into a Church as long as it meets the needs of the people, even though it might offend others." This statement is not only an open invitation to Satan—it is a deception!

Billy Graham started hiring a few bands to pump up his massive congregations before he hit them with the gospel. At a Crusade in Texas in 2002 drawing a crowd of 82,000 people, Graham used "contemporary" popular bands to either draw the crowds, or to entertain them with Satanic music. Amongst the bands Graham used were the following: Jars of Clay, Kirk Franklin, dc Talk, Steven Curtis Chapman, Michael W. Smith, Charlie Daniels and Ce Ce Williams. At least one of these groups were overt Satanists and proudly displayed Satanic symbols over every product they produced. Amy Grant was honoured by the Pope and was used I believe at some of Graham's meetings. She got her inspiration she says from John Denver who was an occultist and who did drugs. Michael W. Smith admitted to the Wall St Journal that he often used marijuana, LSD and Cocaine to get the inspiration to write his gospel songs. Jars of Clay recorded music for an R Rated movie that was loaded with sex, nudity, graphic violence and 83 obscenities just a short time before Graham hired them. Once again, who's fooling who? Why in heaven's name did Graham choose to use these drop kicks? If Graham has been duped by Satan, what chance do we have? And is this not clear proof that the Devil has taken over the Church music scene and that we old Fuddy Duddies are not half as stupid as we look?

And are these musical devils still strutting their deception today? More so than ever! And the best way to find out is to get the latest "Christian" book shop brochure. I received mine from Word book shop yesterday dated 1st April 2008, ironically April fool's day, but this Charlie is no fool. Word were promoting in its latest brochure every single group and person mentioned in the paragraph above and the one below. They tell us that the likes of Smith who you might remember gets his religious inspiration from cocaine, marijuana and LSD, "Follows his worship leader heart by offering another live worship experience that includes a few new-penned Smith songs."

I looked at a Christian program one night called "Face to Face" who were making a name for themselves playing weird Christian music during the program. One night they had on the "Newsboys" who I am led to believe, through some intriguing mystery, have a big name on the Christian music scene. These dudes performed like animated Mummies and were dressed in clothes that looked like they were borrowed from the local garbage dump. The lyrics of the song they performed were unintelligible twaddle. I couldn't understand a word of it. But I must say, I enjoyed the uplifting spiritual experience at the end of the film clip where I witnessed about 50 elephants ascending to heaven with balloons tied to their trunks.

Music around the world that has invaded and deceived the Church has become the great unifier and hypnotic that is bringing together the masses in a monumental deception, and as the old Spirit-anointed hymns are tossed out and replaced with the new, we will witness a religious unification under the false Christ and a New World Order. Music is Satan's greatest weapon of the modern era, it is without doubt his most useful and successful tool in the deception of the easily deceived.

The National Prognosis. Australia is in the birth pangs of the total disintegration of its social structure. It was reported in England recently that school kids are now zombies who sit in class rooms all day thinking only of suicide and drugs. They are totally incapable of being taught because they are so mentally ill from the direct results of broken homes, single parents, and de facto relationships. It is the same here, and we are about to reap a bountiful crop from Whitlam's horticultural plantings of easy walk-out marriages that has been supported and fertilized by every politician that has followed in his arrogant footsteps. This all says nothing of the torment and heart ache of thousands of good hard working husbands whose wives simply walked out on them because the grass was greener on the other side, [Husbands also walk out on their wives of course.] who left their husbands shattered and confused and terribly lonely with huge sums of support money to be forked out ad infinitum under the orders of ridiculous and lop-sided Family Law courts. What chance have the kids really got with a society that has become intoxicated on depravity and stupidity?

I received an email from the Sodom capital of the world yesterday-Holland. That's where the depraved monkeys in Parliaments have just stepped a rung further down the ladder on their path to uncontrolled depravity by legalizing heterosexual and homosexual acts by day or night in the main public park in Amsterdam as long as they tied their dogs on a lead whilst they [the Dutch, not the dogs] were performing. It seems the Dutch have taken the place and behaviour of their dogs. My mate over there in his email this morning was complaining about the reports of the horrific child abuse that he has heard has been uncovered in South Australia after a 3 year enquiry, which we are informed, is 'only the tip of the iceberg.' Australia could become the pedophile capital of the world if we put our minds to it. That would give us the edge on Holland in the depravity stakes. What is happening in South Australia, as we well know, is going on in every State. Australia has become intoxicated in depravity.

Our country is facing a financial crisis and there will be many victims. Food will dry up off the shelves and will be affordable only to the wealthy. Our health system will evolve into a National nightmare and will be unable to cope with an enormous upsurge in the elderly, the chronically ill, and the epidemic of alcohol and drug-induced mental illness that is about to engulf us. Howard printed out 11 million Access cards that contained a micro chip just before he was booted out of office. The issuing of those cards has been, for some inexplicable reason, cancelled. Keep in mind that microchip, it will return with a vengeance and it will ultimately control our lives and enslave us under the authority of a New World Order. Despite our resources boom, we are facing a financial melt down and Rudd knows it. If our economy collapses because of escalating food and petrol prices, pensioners could find themselves begging for bread. Pensions may be a thing of the past. How can a bankrupt Government pay pensions? Must we push and violate Almighty God a little more with our infatuation with homosexuals, our financing of fornication, and the filth, blasphemy and blood letting we so eagerly enjoy on the screen, in order to find out? Whatever the price God will ultimately demand of us, will have to be paid.

The International Prognosis. This is even more exciting. There is going to be a big bang in the Middle East. The Bible calls it the Battle of Armageddon and it will take place on the planes of Megiddo in Israel. It will take place when a confederation of madmen like the fool who is President of Iran, accompanied by other Muslim nations and supported by Russia and China, decide that it is high time that Israel be wiped out. This will be a catastrophic blunder because God is going to intervene to save Israel. More importantly, all this will take place any day now. No one will escape the horror of this war in which one third of the earth's population [2 billion souls-the lucky ones] will be slaughtered. I call them the lucky ones because those who are left alive will go through a period of the worst torment ever suffered by humanity. God will take away the power of death from people making it impossible for them to commit suicide to escape His descending wrath. All this of course is foretold in the book of Ezekiel in that dusty old Bible of Grandmothers that lies ignored and hidden in that back room of yours. It is unfortunate that very few take the time to read it anymore and are oblivious to what is just about to hit us. The book of Revelation tells us all about the plagues, illnesses, and curses that will be inflicted upon a God-rejecting and defiant remnant who will stagger around like living corpses with their tongues stuck to the roof of their mouths. I will not waste my time enumerating the vials of wrath that God is going to pour out and of the horrific consequences of the visitation of Angels. You can read all that for yourself if you have a mind to. Otherwise forget all about it and continue living in Noddy land. At least you have been warned.

The Glorious Optimistic Prognosis. It is humanly inconceivable to fully grasp the fact that God so loved the world and those of us who reside in it, as gross, defiant, and foul as we are, that He sent His only begotten Son to be humiliated, scorned, flogged, betrayed, and nailed to a cross, to save us from our sins and an eternity in hell. There is one enormous sin however that God cannot and will not forgive, and that sin is called UNBELIEF! Unbelief has consigned countless millions into a Christless eternity and it has hamstrung, hogtied and rendered impotent and kept in the wilderness, countless struggling Christians over the ages.

The opposite of unbelief is faith, and without faith, it is impossible to please God. What is faith? It is the confident assurance that something we want is going to happen. It is the certainty that what we hope for is waiting for us, even though we cannot see it up ahead. [Heb 11:1 LB] That is why Christians today are looking up and excited that the end is almost here. They know without a doubt exactly what is about to hit the earth. It has been estimated that 75 per cent of people accept Jesus Christ into their lives motivated by fear. Can I attempt to put the fear of God into you? Within just 20 years, the population on the earth will be unsustainable. Our natural resources and minerals cannot last much longer. We are over heating and the earth is self-destructing under impact of the abuse of mankind. We are facing the imminent onset of new and untreatable deadly illnesses and viruses. AIDS and cancer will affect every person on the globe within 20 years. Social and domestic mayhem and breakdown is going to become epidemic and it will not be safe to walk the streets. Any day now without warning a world war is going to erupt in the Middle East raising the curtain to the most horrific bloodbath the world has ever seen. No one will escape it. A New World Order will spring up under the auspices of the United Nations who are a Satanically-inspired conglomeration of world leaders who follow the creed of their founding occultic fathers. This New Order and a uniting world Church will unite and usher in the Anti Christ and your freedom will then be gone forever. This is only a thumb sketch of what is on the way. I won't tell you the bad parts, but I will tell you the solution.

There is not one person upon the earth today who can honestly say they are not concerned with what the world is facing. Every person can clearly see that we are heading for the inevitable and none are without excuse. God's patience has gone almost beyond endurance and human reasoning, and why He allows rampant sin and the rejection of Himself by the grubs called human beings to go on, is known only to Himself. Christians are fully aware that when the last person has been "saved" according to God's dispensation, the end will come. That last person could be you. If you are not prepared to exercise a little faith and believe God and what He promises you, you will perish. If you can look at the present world and not be moved to take every possible step to save yourself, you are nothing more than a fool.

Let me put it as simply as I can. A criminal with a shocking past walked up to me one day and asked me to show him how to become a Christian. I did of course, and his life dramatically changed. But not for long. A week or so later he walked up to me and said, "If I died tonight, I know exactly where I am going." Then he dropped dead at my feet. Your number is coming up and so is mine. If you were to die tonight, the sum total of this entire matter is simply, do you know where you are going when you die? If you don't, you're on your way to hell because you have chosen to reject the priceless gift of the sacrifice of God's own Son.

Getting saved is so easy and these are the simple steps.

*Get alone in a quiet moment with God and admit to Him you are a sinner. If you reckon you are not a sinner, congratulations you are the first of a kind.

*Recognise by a simple act of faith that God provided forgiveness for your sins by sending His Son to die on a cross. Perhaps you have heard of the year AD? AD what? After the death of Christ, what else? Have you heard of Christmas, Easter, and the Bible? It's all there for you to see.

*Repent! That simply means to make up your mind to turn from the way you were living and to follow the path that God will set before you.

*Ask Jesus Christ to come into your life and to make your life anew and then by faith, receive His Holy Spirit.

*Most important of all, begin to serve God by reading the Bible daily, begin to pray constantly, form a personal relationship with God, that means talking to Him just like He is alongside you because in fact, He is. Seek out fellowship with other Bible-believing Christians and find a place to worship. If one Church does not suit you, keep looking for one that does.

Are Christians really a bunch of weirdo's? Are they a bunch of gutless wonders? Sissies? Misfits? Killjoys? Bible bashers? Half wits, and Escapists?

No they are a bunch of sinners just like you are who had their eyes opened to the Truth because of the mercy of God and they responded to that Truth. They had the brains to know that the world in which they lived was crazy and that they were lost, and they decided to do something about it—not stay lost “And what is this that God has said? That He has given us eternal life, and that this life is in His Son. So whoever has God’s Son has life, and whoever does not have His Son, does not have life. I have written this to you who believe in the Son of God that you might know that you have eternal life. [1 John 5:11-13 LB]

Now that last passage of scripture is very bad news for the good people in the world who wouldn’t hurt a fly, who help others, and are good hearted and kind. But they are all in fact lost, just like a murderer is lost. They are amongst the “hear no evil –see no evil -and speak no evil” nanny goat on-lookers in life who think they are good enough the way they are but who reject the Lordship of Christ in their life just like Hitler did. They line the streets looking at the Gay Mardi Gras and think dirty films are funny. They have not the slightest concept of righteousness

The train of God’s patience is just about to pull out of the station. Don’t miss it.

Just read the article “De Facto-itis” and the one on “The Perils We Face.” I can see that you are very hurt by the evils in our society. Your subject of course is very timely. Please do all you can to use the internet to share God’s Word. It is the least expensive and most cost effective way of doing it. I believe once the gospel has been preached to all men, Jesus will come back and this present age, in which Satan dominates, will come to a close.

We need to be 100% focused on the love and goodness of God. As I see it, God’s goodness also means a total hatred for what is evil. That is part of goodness.

Amen.

Thanks for the warning and you confirm the facts that I have been finding on <http://www>.

For all others who are yet to search, here are my recommendations. Turn off the TV. Read the Book of Truth [the Bible] or at least listen to downloadable 3P versions, and verify the truth by searching the web and praying for guidance.

And finally, pray, repent, pray as you cannot stem the tide of filth, perversion, and decadence.

Emails to politicians will not work.

Blessings to all who fight the good fight to save others.
