Warning

Warning.

As the Titanic, the great “unsinkable ship,” slipped through the icy waters of the Atlantic under the command of a suicidal or crazy Captain, or a Captain, as some have claimed, under orders to deliberately sink the ship, not one of the passengers or crew were the slightest bit aware that within minutes, all the comforts, pleasures, and luxury they were enjoying would be exchanged for a terrible death beneath the surface of an icy sea. As the ship sliced into an iceberg at full speed, the disastrous results of suffering and the loss of life was the direct result of a Captain failing to take notice of simple warning signs. It was dark. He had been warned and warned of the risks, and he was traveling too fast in dangerous waters. His behaviour was in fact, suicidal and quite unbelievable. The dangers that were presenting to the Captain of the Titanic were “clearly foreseeable.”

When the 259 passengers on Pan Am 103 were listening to the soothing music in their headphones, watching a movie, reading a book, dozing, or simply lying back looking forward to the adventure the landing of the aircraft would bring them, little did any of them realize that within a minute or two, their bodies would be torn apart, left dangling in their seats from high buildings, and strewn charred in bits and pieces all over the landscape of Lockerbie. Proper security measures had not been taken before the aircraft took off and obvious warnings were ignored. Law enforcement agencies of several nations could have averted the tragedy. “Clearly foreseeable” signs were ignored.

What happened to the Titanic and to the aircraft over Lockerbie, and even in the worst human disasters you can think of including Word War Two, were only small dress rehearsals for what is coming our way in the near future. Most of us live in a trance totally ignoring the “foreseeable risks” and the threat that faces the world, and are in fact totally unwilling to take any precautions to prevent a disaster happening either at a world or personal level. The world in general is in fact not really to blame because people who have not had a personal encounter with a loving God through His Son Jesus Christ are in fact not capable of seeing or discerning spiritual realities, and are not capable of being aware of the peril that faces us. Totally without warning, any day soon, the rug is going to be pulled from under us.

“Foreseeable risk” is a term used in the Law that is used to describe a threat that is reasonably likely to occur unless reasonable precautions are implemented to prevent it. Whereas the hapless victims of the Titanic, the Pan Am 103, and many, many other human disasters over the past century were not the fault of the innocent victims, the horrendous threat to the world today and the disaster it is facing, is the direct responsibility of all who read this article. Once having read it, you have clearly seen the “foreseeable risks,” that confront us, and are therefore without excuse.

I am going to present to you clearly foreseeable risks that are confronting this world that in my opinion are terminal, and that no reasonable precaution can be taken to prevent it. A disaster is clearly on its way! It will not be long before we, as an Earth populace will be torn from our godlessness, false sense of security, complacency, and depraved evil, to be plunged into the icy depths of God's impending judgment.. The clearly foreseeable signs are evident to even the most apathetic, cynical, and demented. As of old, the Titanic that was heading for the inevitable iceberg, and the Pan Am 130 that was about to explode in mid air, so too is the world in which we live, heading for the inevitable.

Clarence Larkin wrote a book 100 years ago, and it consumed 30 years of his life in its completion. It is called "Dispensational Truth" outlining the sequence of God's plan for mankind, and it is illustrated by hundreds of drawings and diagrams aptly illustrating the abilities of the author's eye for detail and truth, and the accurateness of the truths of God's Word. Larkin predicted at the completion of his book that the coming of Christ to the world to take His own off the earth, was imminent. He was, like many before and after him, a long way out with his prophecy of the nearness of the coming of Christ. Should that make us complacent in regards to the 10 signs that he said would precede Christ's coming, or indeed make us any less apprehensive or prepared?

The greatest of the saints of the past and the mighty men of God who changed the world with the power of their preaching, would do triple somersaults in their coffins if only they could see the state of degeneration that the world has sunken into. It appears all their mighty preaching may have been almost in vain. Their hearts would truly be broken at the peril they would know the world and its people are now facing.

May I present to you one of the most obvious and foreseeable risks that is facing our nation before getting into Larkin's 10 warnings of the last things to happen before the end comes upon the earth. They sent Peter Ryan over from England to straighten out a crooked New South Wales Police Force. He turned out to be the beginning of the rot. They made him the Police Chief and there was a ray of hope that he may get rid of a few crooks in the Force. Ryan left the position having attained two major successes of note. He totally failed in his mission to straighten out crooked cops, and he gave permission for the pansy Homo's in his Force to march in the Gay Mardi Gras. For that astounding achievement he received a massive handful of dollars and did us the favour of leaving our shores.

Now one of the graduates under his useless leadership was a lass by the name of Christine Nixon who migrated to Victoria to take up the role of Chief Police Commissioner. She proved to me that she was very rude in not answering my well-worded letter telling her as to what I thought of her as a woman and as a leader of our Police Force. Nixon went one better than her ex boss in dealing with Queers. She actually called in off-duty cops and paid them overtime to march in the Melbourne Gay Mardi Gras in which she marched in herself thus identifying her Force with a soft and compliant attitude to sexual perversion. It beggars the question of what one of Nixon's Queer officers would do if they came across a couple of depraved deviants carrying on in a public toilet. Well, it is painfully obvious they wouldn't arrest one of their own, so that would leave them with the choice of walking off ignoring the offence, or stripping off and joining in the party.

Only this very day, we hear the comforting news that the Armed Forces Chief bright spark leaders have now capitulated to the perverts in the Forces in allowing them to take part in the Sydney Gay Mardi Gras. There are two types of homosexuals. The first kind are the ones who know what they are, feel remorse, and seek the help they desperately need. Many of them are delivered of their affliction. The second kind is the militant despicable who take part in the Gay Mardi Gras. I got the word 'animals' out of World Book that departmentalize homosexuals into the same box as those who commit acts of bestiality. How very fitting! The DSM IV manual, which is the Psychiatrist's Bible, describes homosexuals as dysfunctionals with sexual identity crises. Homosexuality is sexual perversion and is abhorred by God. Well who is God you may whistle through your teeth? We'll see a little later exactly who God is. He is the one who, through His unmerited and inexplicable love for the likes of us, is putting His destruction of the world on hold that you might be saved, no matter how vile you are, before the end comes.

God describes homosexuals as an abomination and promises every one of them a front seat in hell. The history of Sodom and Gomorrah has apparently been forgotten, and history that is forgotten is destined to be repeated. The tremendous influence the small minority of homosexuals are having on the community at large at this present time is not due to the efforts of the homo's themselves. The same Satanic influence behind the rapid growth of the acceptance of vile and depraved acts, is the same force that is behind the flood of Porn, the vomit that comes from Hollywood, the trash that spews from our TV sets, the Satanic tripe and porn that is coming out of Disney Land, the social disintegration of the family unit, and godless politicians, and worse, pretend Christian politicians. Most kids today have murdered and slaughtered a million people before they leave school on the video game trash that is so readily available to them, and so often supplied by their mindless parents. Who is really behind all of this—a Holy God? I don't think so. The demonic influence of homosexuality has infiltrated the Church itself, and whilst supposed "Churches" who support homosexuality are no more Churches that what dog kennels are, it is a sad rebuke on the real Church that continues in its failure to be totally outraged at what is happening to the morals of our land.

I have only been on a talk site once on a computer. It was by total accident on Yahoo. I don't know how I even got onto to it, but it was a bunch of homos chatting freely to each other. It was like listening to a conversation coming out of the pits of hell. I have been exposed well and truly to all the vile facets of human depravity but there was nothing to even come close to the purulent, disgusting, and sickening filth that came out of the mouths of these animals. They possessed a unique evil that could not be matched.

So when the Nixons of this world and others in positions of authority including gutless politicians cave into the demands of these perverts, they are clearly exposing us all to foreseeable risks. In Leviticus we read under a heading in the Living Bible, "Be holy for I am holy," these words from God Himself. "Homosexuality is absolutely forbidden, for it is an enormous sin. The entire country is defiled with this kind of activity, that is why I am punishing the people that are living there, and will throw them out of the land. You must strictly obey all of my laws and ordinances and you must not do any of these abominable things. These laws apply both to you [Israel] and foreigners living amongst you."

At a time when America is at the most serious crossroads in its history, it can only be described as having at best, paltry candidates for the Presidency, one of whom is a witch. With a debt exceeding 10 trillion dollars which is unrepayable, and an outgoing war-mongering President who has led the world into the brink of World War 3, with a chronic housing and personal debt crisis, and with a crumbling stock market, a High Court of 9 judges the majority of whom have banned the Christian religion, and an overwhelming upsurge in witchcraft, it is reasonable to assume that that the United States could collapse at any time soon. If it does, it will drastically affect the political situation of the entire world. And if it does, who then will protect Australia from the envying eyes of the neighbours to our immediate north? Remember God said He would take the land off the people who committed such abominations as homosexual acts. We not only commit them, our politicians have legislated to add respect to the vile practice. Australia may soon be caught with its pants down so to speak. We do not have enough military strength at the moment to stave off a reasonable-sized fishing fleet of canoes. We are living in a fool's paradise whilst we ignore, tantalize, and insult a mighty God with our defiant depravity.

Now let's take a look at Larkin's 10 warning signs which were fulfilled according to him, a century ago. That means without a doubt, the hands of the world clock are now touching midnight. All over the place from every religious source, I hear of the news that the coming of Christ is right at our door. It will take most, but certainly not all of us by surprise when He comes.

1. Post-Millennial scoffers. "There will come in the last days scoffers, walking after their own lusts, and saying, Where is the promise of His coming? For since the fathers died, all things continue as they were from the beginning of creation. [2 Pet. 3:3, 4.] The doctrine of the second coming is scoffed at and those who hold it are looked upon as deluded fanatics, and sad to say, this opposition comes from religious leaders of the day.”

2. Apostasy. Despite what many revved up, sweating and screaming modern TV evangelist who would have us believe that the world is going to see mass revival, and according to the God TV Channel, that a billion people are going to be saved, the Apostle Paul clearly emphasizes the fact that the awful Day of the Lord will not come, except we see a falling away first. I'll tell you what a falling away looks like. It looks like the 100 “Revs” that marched in the Gay Mardi Gras. These so called “Revs” [which pertains to Reverends] are in fact no such thing. They are in fact godless revolutionaries. A leader—a Baptist Minister if you please, must have studied Darwinism or the lunatic writings of Freud when he was in Bible college. He certainly never studied the Word of God, and the Baptist Union of N.S.W. ought to hang its head in shame in not defrocking these fakes. I have been a Baptist all my life and proud to be one, and I in fact founded and built a Baptist Church in N.S.W., and let me now tell you that I am ashamed to be numbered amongst them. [The officials of the Baptist Union of N.S.W. have since, totally alienated themselves officially from the 100 Revs. They should have gone further by kicking those so-called deviant sympathisers out of the ministry.] Let me tell you also what God says about these freaks masquerading as ministers of the gospel who fraternize with perverts, “Know ye not that the unrighteous will not inherit the Kingdom of God? Be not deceived, neither fornicators, nor idolaters, nor adulterers, nor effeminate, neither abuses of themselves with mankind [homosexuals] nor thieves, nor covetous, nor drunkards, nor revilers, nor extortioners [nor anyone who sympathises or identifies with them] will enter the Kingdom of God.” 1 Cor.6: 9, 10. These pervert-fraternising so-called Reverends could be well numbered amongst the losers who stand one day before the Lord bleating, “But Lord, Lord, I cast out devils and I healed in your name. [I even marched with the Queers in your name] To which the Lord will reply, “Depart from me you accursed, I never knew you.” To show homosexuals that you love them does not mean making a public ass of yourselves identifying with them in a march that resembles a pantomime from hell. I'll tell you what the mighty Baptists of old would have done with these modern religious half-wits. The Riddleys, the Betteriges, the Ecobs, the Harris's, and the Leghorns, would have cursed them out of the ministry.

3. False Teachers. Oh boy oh boy, if Larkin could only see and hear what's coming out of the mouths of some of the modern Gurus on Christian satellite TV today, he would really get a handle on what “false teaching” was all about. Millions are being deceived by these pumped up psychobabblers that perform solely to make a big name for themselves, and to make merchandise out of the gospel and most, if not all of them will not die naked on a cross like the one they pretend to follow, they will die in mansions costing millions. Many are in fact today being investigated at this moment for the millions of dollars in donations that they cannot give an account for.

4. Spiritualism. Spiritualism today is sweeping across the Western nations and if Larkin thought it was bad in his day, he was living in Noddy land. America has a witch running for the Presidency, and witchcraft and the Psychics are ruling the land. Disney Land is peddling witchcraft, porn and homosexuality. The owner of Disney Land has just left his wife to marry a man. In a recent Australian trash magazine called “That's Life,” under the direction of editor Linda Smith, who becomes very withdrawn and reserved when she receives emails that spell out a few home truths, and is responsible for this rubbish that appeared on page 36 of a recent edition. “Paganism, otherwise known as witchcraft, is one of the fastest growing practices in this country according to the latest Australian census. The typical pagan in Australia is highly educated, female, and in a professional career. Most cultures have some witchcraft or shamanic traditions, particularly hunter-gatherer societies. Witches and pagans do not believe in Satan, and do not practice anything involving the devil. More men are involved in paganism in the US than women, but in Australia, the ratio is reversed. Pagan goddesses have a nurturing quality but are also fiercely protective, while pagan gods represent life force. Smith then goes on to do the unthinkable. She actually advertises a witchcraft website on the following page. It would be interesting to know what Bible College Smith graduated from seeing she has so much to say about gods and Satan. This is what God has to say about it all. “Thou shall have no other Gods before me.” If Smith knew the first thing about the Word of God, she would have discovered that Satan is a liar, a thief, a deceiver, and a murderer. It is crystal clear that Satan has made a fool out of her and deceived all the stupid women that stick their noses into the psychic tripe that her grotty magazine is full of.

5. Perilous Times. Of these times Paul told Timothy, “This know also that in the last days perilous times shall come. For men shall be lovers of their own selves, boasters, proud blasphemers, disobedient to parents, unthankful, unholy, without natural affection, lovers of pleasure more than lovers of God etc, etc. The Church will have a form of godliness, but by their actions and behaviour will deny the very power of God, because they won't have any power, they will just pretend they have it. They will tell people they are healed when they clearly are not healed. The Bush administration in the United States has been one of the most turbulent and erratic in the nation's history. I will tell you a little of the perilous times that Larkin knew nothing about. George W. Bush is trying to get a peace treaty signed with Israel like Jimmy Carter did 3 decades ago, there will never be peace in Israel and Bush is living in Cuckoo land in trying to achieve it. Bush has other problems.

Benazir Bhutto on a live interview with David Frost two months before she was murdered stated that she knew the names of the people who were going to kill her, and she was going to tell the world who killed Osama Bin Laden 6 years ago. This means that Bush fully knew that Bin Laden was dead before he [Bush] attacked Iraq. Bin Laden was killed by Zionists and American intelligence. That means that Bush may have started the Iraqi blood bath on lies and is responsible for the deaths of hundreds of thousands of people, and is just as guilty of war crimes as the once leader of Iraq who he hunted down and hanged. It has also been claimed with much evidence that Bin Laden had nothing to do with 9/11 and that this terrible disaster was an “inside job.” Be that as it may, the fact remains that Bush started a needless war that cannot be stopped without dire consequences, and which may well escalate into a war that will certainly end all wars. Just take a look at the Middle East that simmers today on the brink of war and the lunatic running Iran who is threatening to blow Israel off the map, and you will realize we are indeed living in perilous times.

6. Heaped Treasure. We are told in James 5:1-6 that in the last days there will be a class of “rich men.” Who shall have heaped treasure together, and that by fraud they will use their ill-gotten gain in the pursuit of pleasure and wantonness and that God will hear the cry of those who have been cheated of their just share of the profits and will send a judgment upon the guilty. “Men will become millionaires and multi millionaires,” Larkin claimed a century ago when such sums of money were unheard of. Now we have multi-Billionaires who are bleeding the peasants dry by loaning amounts of money that are unrepayable. We see the collapse of HIH and massive corporations almost weekly around the world brought on by the greed and manipulation of evil men. And who are the secret lenders to whom the USA is indebted to the tune of 10 Trillion dollars? And to whom do Australians owe billions of dollars for plastic card borrowings?

7. A Laodicean Church. “In the message to the Church in Laodicea [Rev. 3: 14-22] we have a description of the last days of the professing Church on earth. It is described as neither hot nor cold but nauseatingly luke-warm so that Christ says, He will spew it out of His mouth. This Church will boastfully claim to be rich and increased with goods, and to have need of nothing—not even Christ, for He will be excluded and will have to knock for admittance, and this Church will be totally ignorant of its true condition. That it is wretched, miserable, poor, blind, and naked. Unspeakably sad it is, [Larkin writes] that this is the condition to a large extent of the professing Church of today.” Old Clary should take a gander from his home in glory of what we've got now!

8. The Fig Tree Sign I asked a Seventh Day Adventist Pastor recently if he saw any difference between the Nation of Israel and the rest of the Gentile population of the world in regards to God's dispensational plan for mankind. He said no. I was absolutely staggered and walked away in disbelief. It was like a cat telling me he did not believe in drinking milk, or a mouse telling me there was no such thing as cheese. I could not believe a professing Christian calling himself a Pastor could be so arrantly out of touch with the basic truths of scripture. Remember Larkin was writing 100 years ago and was not privy to the amazing events that occurred in the history of Israel in 1948 and 1967. So he was projecting forward in what he believed was the truth of Bible prophecy as he understood it. So he writes, When Jesus' disciples asked him, Tell us when these things shall be, and what shall be the sign of thy coming and of the end of the Age? [Matthew 24:1-3] Jesus gave as a "sign" of His coming, the "Fig Tree sign." This symbolizes the Nation of Israel and its 'budding' as the revival of Israel as a Nation.

It was difficult indeed to comprehend that Israel could regain its independence as a Nation against insurmountable odds just three years after Hitler was trying to shove the last of them into his gas ovens. The 1948 war against the surrounding Arab Nations who intended to completely destroy the newly founded State of Israel was a miracle of the intervening and delivering hand of God. An even greater miracle was the 6 day war when General Abdul Nasser thought it was his turn to make a world hero out of himself by pushing every Jew into the Mediterranean Sea. In just 6 days Nasser's mighty military forces that outnumbered Israel 80 to 1 were decimated, and their soldiers took their boots off in order to escape from the victorious Jews, quicker, across the blazing desert sands.

Today Israel is a flourishing land producing the world's best agriculture grown from useless desert sands as a direct result of clever and ingenious farming practices all resulting from prophecies given many hundreds of years before it all happened. But Israel's woes are not over, not by a long shot. Many in the world have their eyes upon Jerusalem in these times, and some of those interested are the Muslims, the Vatican, the Christians, and of course the Jews themselves who are in fact the rightful owners as it was part of the land given to Abraham by mandate from God some 400 years after the flood that delivered Noah and his 3 sons and their wives. Jerusalem is the city where Jesus Christ will return to save the world from destroying itself in the forthcoming Battle of Armageddon that is going to claim the lives of 2 billion people during the initial onslaught of the opposing nations. Israel is not only separate and the elite in God's sight for which He has a special purpose completely apart from the Gentiles, it is also the Nation through which the remnant of the world after Armageddon might be saved. Israel is God's chosen people but must pay dearly yet for crucifying the Son of God and rejecting Him to this day as their Messiah. They will be inevitable crushed in the great Battle that lies just ahead and most of them will be slaughtered.

9. The Distress of Nations. In Luke 21:24-27 Jesus tells us that as the time of the Gentiles comes to a close upon the earth there will be a distress of the nations with perplexity. For those who don't fully understand the difference between the Jews and the Gentiles, as stated before, the Jews are God's chosen people and constitute the present Nation of Israel. All other countries and Nationalities of the world are called the Gentile Nations. So—there is only two classes of people in God's sight. When Jesus speaks of the times of the Gentiles coming to an end, He is referring to the time when He returns to take His people off the earth at the Rapture of the Church, and to raise the dead bodies of the saints from their graves.

People of past generations all had tunnel vision, and being unable to "see" into the future, they all thought that the times they were living in were as tough as it could get. I mean to say, what could Larkin have possibly seen in the early 1900's that would give him the impression that the Nations of the world were "distressed?" How about the days from the 1940's to the present time? A lunatic in Germany in 1939 stressed every nation in the world by starting a war that took over 60 million lives. Stalin murdered 80 million of his Russian countrymen. Mao Tse Tung shot every land owner and those he took a disliking to. He was responsible for the deaths of about 70 million and at any given time, there were thousand of bodies floating down the Yangtze.

China today hasn't improved that much and is still torturing and murdering Christians. So is Indonesia, and every Muslim country on the earth. Muslims like killing that much, they are even killing each other. Look at the wonderful time those madmen bombers are having in Iraq slaughtering thousands of innocent people. Africa has been enjoying something of an on-going Sunday school picnic by slaughtering each other at will. Whilst most of them are in the grip of famine, the others are finding enough money to buy enough AK 45's to blow each others brains out. Even 11-year olds have their own weapons. Look at the party Rwanda had a decade ago chopping a million of its own population to bits with machetes. Then there are the Castro's, masters of torture and murder and persecutors of God's people. Why do the Communists hate law-abiding and loving Christians? Do you need any more proof of a Person by the name of Satan? All the nations of the world are beginning to become distressed with what is happening in Afghanistan, a situation that could escalate into a world conflict. Then there is Pakistan, Lebanon, Syria, Saudi Arabia, Iran, China and the sleeping Bear—Magog—Russia, all with their eyes pointing towards Israel quietly awaiting in the wings for the final showdown at Armageddon. Only an empty tortoise shell could fail to see what lies just up ahead. Most humans can't, or won't.

10. Noah Days. "The last sign that we should mention," writes Larkin, "is the sign of the Noah days. As it was in the days of Noah, they did eat, they drank, and they married wives, and they were given in marriage." We have so-called Christian politicians today Clary who actually fork out billions of the tax payers dollars to pay its people to commit fornication to avoid actually getting married. We also pay single mothers to procreate with strange men thus inflicting the Bastard curse on our Nation that could pass onto countless future generations. That shouldn't be a real problem though because the way we are heading, there won't BE any future generations. Larkin summarises his 10 signs by saying, "It is not wrong in what people are doing today so much that matters. "What is wrong is that the people are so preoccupied with the things of life and what they are doing, and what is consuming all of their time, they have no time left to think of the only important issue in life that really matters. That is, where are they going, or where is God going to send them the moment they stop breathing? The moment the door of the Ark slams in their face and time is no more."

Well at least good old Australia has had a wonderful run of luck. What do we know about the "distress of the nations?" Not much, except for a few little things that we might have to take care of soon. Things like binge drinking teenagers whose brains and livers are going to be rotted out by the time they reach their third decade—that's if they ever reach it. Our health care system is in the process of collapse, and the mental health care system has been destroyed by a succession of incompetent idiots. Thousands upon thousands of struggling newly weds are going to be kicked out onto the streets because they were silly enough to borrow money they had no chance of paying back, and they were warned. Our country is drowning in purulent filth and countless men, women, and children, are now addicted to hard core pornography. Our God has become a ball designed in any shape as long as it can be hit, kicked or chased, and our religion has become our own infatuation with our own useless existence. We are importing into our country people who hate us for what we are, and for what we once stood for. Many of them are anti Christ and there are going to be dangerous and uncompromising confrontations in the not too distant future, that is, if the Christians have the guts to stand up for what they believe in. I mean, you have got to admire the people who come to us from strife torn countries who accept our hand of friendship and all the freebies that go with it, then have the gall to demand their stinking rights. Well they got away with it in England. The British have sold out to the Muslims, so has the Netherlands, France and a lot more countries I could name. We are in the process.

At least the genuine non violent Muslims have a religious code that they believe in and attempt to put into practice. What religious code does the average ocker clown have? A can in one hand, a fag in the other, and a filthy joke spewing out of his mouth in the local pub. The problem with the Muslims is, we will never know who the radicals really are, and the ones who are not. What is worse, neither will they until the time comes when they will be forced to make a choice.

Then there is the problem of our dysfunctional and disintegrating family structures that once held our nation together. Now we have a gaggle of lost, confused and angry kids who are the produce by God knows who, over God knows whoever else. Many of them walk out into the streets because they can't stand some de facto mongrel boyfriend of their dysfunctional mother sexually abusing them any longer. The cops won't issue restraining orders any more unless they really have to, because they are swamped with them and are sick to death of them. It won't be too long before every Australian will have to be a social worker paid by a broke government to look after themselves. Ahhh yes, we've got it made in this lucky country of ours. All we have to do now to really make it is to try to find out what we are going to do when our economy collapses, when our pensions dry up, when China turns off our food supply, or it becomes too dear to buy, and petrol becomes too dear to give the family wagon a drink. And there is that little worry of invasion from the near or far north?

I have clearly pointed out to you in this article foreseeable risks and even more, absolute probabilities and certainties. We are in fact a Titanic heading at breakneck speed in the blackness of a freezing night for an unavoidable pack of invisible ice. We are going to hit it. God says we will.

I know I have been a little sombre in my presentation of all this stuff, and to many it will be quite obnoxious, so may I finish it all off with a little light-hearted news that should lighten up all the godless and gutless politicians who have capitulated to the perverses over the past decade. They might get a belly laugh out of this next bit. I mentioned the Great Tribulation period that many think might begin shortly after Bush signs the peace agreement with Israel. Of course we all have enough brains to know there never was nor ever will be peace in Israel until the King of Kings returns to the earth to put a stop to man's madness. President Jimmy Carter set up Camp David nearly 4 decades ago to achieve 'peace in Israel' and every morning of his life ever since, he has woken up out his sleep to see the Jews and Palestinians blowing themselves to bits.

The Great Tribulation is a period of 7 years, and has two equal parts of three and a half years each. During the first half, seals will be broken in heaven ushering in certain events each in turn. The Anti Christ will rise up out of the up out of the 10 Kingdoms of the old Roman Empire which is of course are now the countries that deal in the Euro. England will also be included. There will be wars in Europe at this time during which the Anti Christ [a man] will rise to be head. A great shortage of food will occur, and people around the world will starve. Australian governments have assured its people that this will happen by letting our agricultural industry rot into the ground. There will be a great upheaval of the earth and mountains will move and crumble. Men will cry out in fear and beg the rocks to fall on them to kill them. At this time, the sealed and chosen 144,000 Jews will be separated.

Then 7 trumpets will be sounded that will usher in more pleasant surprises. Hail and fire mingled with blood will descend. A meteor will hit the Mediterranean destroying one third of the ships and one third of the fish and the water will turn to blood. The sun, moon, and stars will be smitten and the earth will be darkened. A plague of scorpions will be released upon the human race that may represent hordes of demons being released from hell to enter and torment humans and to take possession of their bodies. People will beg for death but God will take away the power of death and it will impossible to commit suicide.

During the second half of the Tribulation, things get worse. The Anti Christ and the False Prophet will assume complete control over the earth. It will be impossible to buy or sell without wearing the mark of the Beast which of course will be some form of micro chip that many humans and most animals are already wearing. The Howard government had already printed out 11 million new 'Access' cards to be issued early this year that had microchips implanted on them which were of course the precursor for a later implanting under the skin because cards would always present problems as long as they were used. For some unexplained reason all the cards that Howard had produced have been scrapped, so we wait with baited breath for what is coming next. Those refusing to wear the mark will not be able exist and if they wear the mark they will be condemning themselves into hell. Those who take a final stand in refusing the mark will be beheaded. The oceans will turn into blood and every creature in the ocean will die. Men will be scorched with a great heat and will break out in terrible sores. A darkness will come upon the earth that will cause men to gnaw their tongues and scream in pain.

The river Euphrates will dry up. Thousand of years ago when this prophecy was written in Revelation, how could the Euphrates River just simply dry up? Today the flow of the river can be stopped at any time simply by turning off the appropriate cocks and valves. The river will dry up to allow the Kings of the East to march across the dry river bed into the valley of Megiddo in Palestine to assemble with the Nations for the great attack upon Jerusalem. China alone for the past 4 decades has had 200 million troops ready to march to Palestine, the exact number mentioned in the Book of Revelation written 2000 years ago. There will come at this time a great earthquake that will divide the nations of the European Federation and destroy Babylon, the city that Saddam Hussein began to rebuild that will be completed in the near future to become the financial capital of the world. The Tribulation period will end with the Battle of Armageddon at which all the assembled armies of the world will attack Jerusalem. God will intervene personally and there will be an horrific blood bath as man has never seen the likes of. The Bible states that, "Blood came out even unto the horse's bridles by the space of a thousand and six furlongs." The slaughter will be so terrible, that blood will run for 200 miles. There will be so many dead bodies that God is going to send a huge number of eagles and birds of the air to gorge on the human blood and flesh, and the Israelites who by the power of God will be the victors, will spend 7 months burying what is left of the slaughtered masses.

Now what I have just presented to you is merely an awkward, brief thumbnail sketch of the catastrophes that are facing the human race. I have included it in the hope that it might wipe the smirks off the faces of the perverses, the politicians who encourage and join them, and the masses who ignore a Holy God and the wonderful free offer of salvation that is available to them. I should have more sense because what I have said probably won't change anyone because it is written that "the pathway to Heaven is narrow, and only a few there will be who enter therein."

Is that the most optimistic note that I can conclude on? Oh no, there's more.

We have a loving God of compassion and eternal hope that knew before the beginning of time that you would be who you are and where you would be right at this very moment. He knows all about depravity and the vileness and hopeless state of man. Nothing shocks nor surprises Him and mankind has never changed since the beginning of time. There is nothing so evil that you can commit that has not been committed a thousand times before by others. Is it not really amazing that God could send down His Son to die on a miserable torturous cross to appease His wrath for our filthy sins? How do you work that one out? We all deserve to rot in hell, yet He made a simple way out. The word is lost and cannot be saved, but you can. Remember what I said about "the times of the Gentiles?" When the last Gentile according to God's sovereign plan has been saved by accepting Jesus Christ into his or her heart, the times of the Gentiles will have come to an end and Jesus Christ will return immediately to take home His own. You could actually be that person who is holding up the coming of the Son of Man. Someone has to be, just think about that.

You could do something right now that would not only remove a threat that is likely to occur to you, but also to take the only action that, in your personal case, will prevent that threat from becoming a reality, thus removing all foreseeable risks. This is how to do it.

You step into the simple realm of faith because without faith, it is impossible to please God. You step into that realm by taking God and His promises seriously, even though at this stage, you don't understand it all. You find yourself a quiet place and you choose to get serious with God. You speak to Him realizing that He is omnipresent, meaning He is everywhere. He can see you and He can hear you right at this moment. Jesus said in John 6:37, and 40. "All those whom the Father giveth to me, I will in no wise cast out. And this is the will of Him that sent me, that every one which seeth the Son, and believeth on Him, may have everlasting life: and I will raise him up on that last day."

That says clearly that God wants you personally to receive eternal life through His Son who died for you, and you can receive it right now at this moment by praying this simple prayer. "Lord Jesus, I don't understand all of this, but I have just read of the terrible situation that our world is in and of the plan that you have offered to save each one of us. You have offered us the option of life or death and I choose life. I am prepared to believe by faith that you came into the world to die for sinners of which I am one. I readily admit to you my sin and ask your forgiveness for all the wrongs I have done against you and my fellow man. I invite you to come into my life right now by the power of your Holy Spirit as my Lord and Saviour and to forgive me, and to set me free from the guilt and the penalty of the sins of my past. I decide now also Lord to deliberately turn from my past and serve you to the best of my ability as I seek to learn of your plan for my life through the study of your Holy Word. I thank you for what you have done in Jesus' name, Amen."

This simple prayer from the heart has changed the lives of millions. It has taken the smirk off the face of many perverts. It can change anyone's life..

Finally, if I knew that the Titanic was about to be sunk and I was on that ship at the time, don't you think I would have rushed to tell the skipper the danger that his ship was in? Don't you think I would have warned him? If I was on the plane that was to explode over Lockerbie and I knew the disaster was going to happen and I was sitting in the plane before it took off, how long do you think it would take me to warn the Captain? Knowing full well what is about to happen to this world, how can I not warn you?

It was interesting to watch our millions of dollars go up into space recently when Kevin Rudd drew around himself one thousand hand-picked Australians at the 2020 conference to reinforce himself as to what direction he is headed-or not headed. I wouldn't be in Rudd's shoes for all the tea in China for what's up ahead for him. All the one thousand chosen elect high brows did was to blow a lot of hot gas. They achieved nothing. And what was said by the the gallant band of movers and shakers in Canberra about what we have done to our founding father's foundations of morality, holiness, and respect for Almighty God?

Not a whisper if you please!

Well, we are witnessing the beginning of the end of Australia's "she'll be right mate" era. Sky-rocketing prices and abject poverty and hardship are going to bring this country to its knees.

Wow Ken that is amazing. Do you mind if I pass it on to others? It certainly is pretty much on par with what is happening isn't it? What you say about the Churches is so true—the obscenity of greed is what motivates—where is Christ with His whip to drive them out?
It is the self-deluded who have no idea what to do with their faith who are sucked in and believe all this guff and gush.

It's sad to think that even this wont "scare hell out of most people".
Keep up the good fight mate. Blessings, Merv & Michelle & family
